HONOR AT STAKE.
Talk so Notifies Congress.
Message from the President on the Panama Canal Bill.
Noble Requires an Act to Test the Matter in Court.
Expected to Sign War Warning Is Real or Not.
HONOR CURTIS.
WIRE TO THE TIMES.
BUREAU OF THE TIMES.
Aug. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President Taft today sent a message to Congress to sustain the canal law by amending or supplementing the canal bill so as to prevent the construction of the Panama Canal by the United States. The President said that he was not sure that the canal law was not being violated, and that he was not sure that the canal law was not being violated. He said that he was not sure that the canal law was not being violated, and that he was not sure that the canal law was not being violated.

charges. He leaves it uncertain as to whether he will sign or veto. If Congress fails to follow his recommendation.
SPECIAL CABINET MEETING.
Another special meeting of the Cabinet preceded the message sent to Congress. Ever since the conference report on the canal bill was adopted by the two houses of Congress the President has been considering what he ought to do. First, it was intimated that he might veto the bill and ask Congress to re-pass it with the amendment of a joint resolution granting the Federal courts power to review the question of treaty violation, the details of the plan being as stated in the dispatches Saturday night. Later it was indicated that he would sign the bill and take chances on the subsequent adoption of the desired joint resolution. Now the prevalent belief is that the President will sign the bill anyhow, contenting himself, in case Congress refuses to back his suggestion, with having "set himself right," and acting on the theory that the general good in the measure outweighs the objection he has raised.
DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.
The President, in his embarrassment for such it is—seems to be differing wholly to the difference of opinion that exists as to whether the free toll provision is in violation of the treaty with Great Britain. Personally he does not think the provision is in violation of the treaty. He may be influenced, however, by the knowledge possessed by those in close touch with diplomatic affairs that a second protest from Great Britain will follow the enactment into law of the measure as it now stands. A protest of this kind—a formal protest in addition to the informal one already made—will mean submission of the issue to the Hague tribunal or place the United States in an unenviable position should the construction of certain radicals that it is purely a domestic question and therefore not subject to arbitration, be sustained.
FORMIDABLE COMPLICATIONS.
The complications that loom up are formidable. The President and his thoughtful higher officials of the government realize this. A prediction

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
TUESDAY, AUG. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Submerged under a wave of savagery and anarchy such as no civilized country has experienced in modern times, the fate of the present government of Mexico is hanging in the balance and unless unexpected measures are immediately adopted to check the onward march of the irresponsible rebellious hosts, nothing but the direct hand of Providence can save this country from a reign of terror unequalled in history.
Within the last forty-eight hours, the spirit of revolt has increased to such an extent that men are no longer men and the thin veneer of civilization has been stripped from the body politic, exposing a state of savagery, only to be compared with the unspeakable crimes committed by the American Indians in years gone by.
SLAUGHTER OF INNOCENTS.
Even the metropolitan press of this capital is compelled to admit that hundreds of innocent women and children are being slaughtered daily in the name of patriotism, while the forces of organized anarchy seem impotent to cope with the real situation.
And while the better class of people of this city were stunned by the reports of murderous assaults and the seeking of defensive titles, El Herald Independiente, an evening paper, flooded the capital with copies of an extra edition asserting that the "columns of the North" had thrown down the gauntlet to the Mexican people and was preparing to invade the national territory with troops bent only on taking the country from its people. According to this newspaper, the Mexican government had issued an ultimatum to the Mexican State Department, fixing a date when the Americans would intervene unless the present government was able to overcome the vagabond hordes of the north, which menace the life of the nation. The effect of this apparently unauthorized statement immediately was noted in the changed attitude of the Mexicans towards Americans and many of the business men of the northern republic expressed themselves as being dubious as to the result of it all.
SAVAGE LUST OF BLOOD.
That a savage lust of blood had taken possession of the rebellious hordes in the mountains of the State of Morelos was first indicated when the announcement was made that another train-load of soldiers and passengers had been put to the sword and afterwards burned in an attack by Zapatistas at a small station between this city and Cuautla on the line of the Interoceanic Railroad.
As stated in previous dispatches to the Times, not only were the soldiers, armed to defend themselves, shot down to a man, but the passengers, including three neutral newspaper men, were massacred in cold blood and their effects stolen by the savagely.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen, at whose beck and call sixty-five million men are wont to respond, is generally known in the Orient as the George Washington of China. Dr. Sen was a recent visitor in Los Angeles with Gen. Homer Lea of this city.

(BY A. P. MIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The report that Dr. Sun Yat Sen, first provisional President of China, had been assassinated today in Peking by the soldiers of President Yuan Shih Kai caused wild excitement tonight in Chinatown. They could be traced to no authentic source, but varying accounts of the reported assassination were posted on bulletin boards throughout the Chinese quarters.
At the office of the Chinese Consul-General and the two Chinese daily newspapers no news of an attack upon Dr. Sen had been received, and the report of his death was given little credence. Cablegrams were patched to Peking, however, inquiring as to the safety of the former revolutionary leader.
According to the rumors placed in Chinatown, Dr. Sen departed yesterday from Shanghai for Peking to undertake to save the republic from a threatened renewal of hostilities, as the result of the execution of Gen. Chen Qian and Gen. Chen Jue.
NO VERIFICATION.
Sun Fo, a son of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, said tonight he had received no verification of the rumor that his father had been assassinated. The young man seemed much disturbed over the report, but he insisted if any attempt had been made on his father's life he would have been immediately apprised by cable. Sun Fo is a student at the University of California.
"Conditions in the new republic of China are slowly shaping themselves into some semblance of organization," said Rear-Admiral J. B. Murdock who arrived from the Orient today.
"The situation is far from satisfactory, although it cannot be expected that a new government be formulated overnight. Internal dissensions in the new government will retard its establishment on a firm basis. Once the leaders cease advocating conflicting theories and methods of government, China will go forward with giant strides."
Rear Admiral Murdock went up to Shanghai from Manila, while the rebellion in China was at its height, and took charge of the situation by the Yantai. He landed his troops and marines at various points to protect American interests and facilitate the flight of missionaries.
Rear Admiral Murdock has been in the service for forty-six years, and expects to be retired from the navy next February. His successor on the Asiatic station is Rear Admiral J. P. Nicholson.

CONFERENCE IN THE WAY OF A STRIKE IN CHICAGO.
Mayor Harrison Exhausts All Means at His Command to Prevent a Clash Between Employees of Street Car Lines With Their Employers—Threatening Situation Develops on the "L" Roads.
(BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 19.—[Special Dispatch.] One more conference, scheduled for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning is all that stands between Chicago and the most disastrous street car strike in its history. Mayor Harrison, after exhausting every means in his power today to get the warring employers and employees together, finally induced them to meet in the morning in his office for another attempt to avert the labor war.
Increased wages and a better working schedule.
At midnight it was rumored that the men might ignore the agreement made with the Mayor and go on strike at the change of crews at 4 o'clock in the morning. No union officials, however, could be found to confirm this story, and the street car officials strenuously denied that there was any chance of such action.
Mayor Harrison alone forced the conference tomorrow. The street car companies had been firm against further negotiations, but when the presidents of both traction companies had been called to the Mayor's office and the leader of the employees also summoned, the Mayor soon forced the arbitration stand and a further conference.
"If a spirit of fairness is not shown tomorrow," said President Mahon, "the men will be called out. This is the situation."
WELCOME.
The Ambassador made inquiries of the two officials regarding the accuracy of a "special dispatch" from Paris to the New York Sun. This dispatch stated that Secretary Knox's mission had aroused bitter feeling throughout Japan.
The Minister of Foreign Affairs cabled as follows:
"In reply to your inquiry, I have to inform you that the consensus of press in Japan is of one accord in regard to the visit of Secretary Knox as an occasion for expressing sincere gratitude of the nation to the United States. Any report to the contrary is positively groundless."
The Japanese Ambassador at Paris cabled this reply:
"Answering your cable inquiry, I beg to state that the report of the New York Sun correspondent must be entirely mistaken, there being no Japanese financial agent or Japanese financial public missions at present in Paris."

JAPS OF ONE ACCORD OVER VISIT OF KNOX.
(BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 19.—[Special Dispatch.] Repudiating printed reports criticising the mission of the Secretary of State to Tokyo to attend the funeral of the late Mikado and incidentally reflecting Japan's pleasure over the honor, the Japanese Ambassador today made public the cablegrams he received from the Minister of Foreign Affairs at Tokyo and the Ambassador at Paris.

WOULD IMPEACH THE PRESIDENT.
(BY CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PEKING, Aug. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The National Assembly held an indignation meeting to day and resolved to interpolate the government as to its reasons for the summary execution of Gen. Chang Chien Wu. The Assembly also telegraphed to Li Yuan Hung, the vice-president who is at Wuchang, in the morning, an explanation for his accusations and speeches against Gen. Chang.
It is intimated that the motive for the Vice-President's action was a private grudge. The newspapers generally denounce the government's action, but criticize Li Yuan Hung more than President Yuan Shih Kai. The Chinese editors in Shanghai have telegraphed to the editors in Peking urging an agitation for the impeachment of the President because he did not oppose Gen. Chang's execution.

CANTON, Aug. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Hongkong, a crown colony of Great Britain, can no longer be a refuge for Chinese criminals from Canton, the right of extradition denied the Canton government pending the formal recognition of the Chinese republic, having just been restored by order of the British Minister at Peking. The Canton authorities will be able to break up the headquarters of the second revolutionary party in Hongkong, formerly to overthrow the Canton government. Many of the claims held by British subjects against Chinese, will not be pressed, however, by the British Consul for this district before the republic is formally recognized.

RAILROADS DOING BETTER.

August Gross Earnings Show Marked Increase.

Very Few Systems Report Any Loss Whatever.

Index of Great Prosperity Throughout Nation.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES. Aug. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Railroad gross earnings for the first week in August show a marked improvement as compared with those of the similar period in the two preceding months, the total of all United States roads reporting to date, aggregating $1,641,211, a gain of 5.7 per cent, as compared with the corresponding period last year.

BUT FEW LOSSES. This contrasts with railroad earnings for first week in July practically the same as a year ago, while for the same period in June they showed an increase of only 2.4 per cent. Very few systems report loss, the most notable being Chicago and Alton, which shows a falling off of $38,415; Texas and Pacific, $11,060, and Colorado and Southern, $37,894.

NUMEROUS GAINS. These decreases, however, are far more than offset by the gains by numerous important roads, among them Missouri Pacific, on which an expansion of $154,698 appears; "Soe," $119,178; Chesapeake and Ohio, $83,844; Southern, $81,768; Louisville and Nashville, $80,489; International and Great Northern, $81,007; Missouri, Kansas and Texas, $16,245, and Minneapolis and St. Louis, $16,757.

Aug. 19.—As the result of conferences held here today and representatives of the Denver, Northwestern and Pacific Railroad, commonly known as the "Moffat road," an agreement was reached by which Newman Erb and his associates will acquire control of the property. Denver interests will invest between $1,000,000 and $1,500,000 in the enterprise.

It is the ultimate intention of Mr. Erb and associates to extend the road to Salt Lake City, it was stated after the meeting. The New York note-holders will extend the time for the payment of $1,500,000 loan.

BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES. OMAHA, Aug. 19.—[Special Dispatch.] Automobiles are just playing hob with the passenger receipts of western railroads and traffic officials are wringing their hands over the new condition. Local passenger traffic has dwindled to almost nothing and tourists are now traveling by auto instead of railroad. In place of using the railroads to reach mountain and lake resorts, westerners are taking shorter trips in their automobiles. As a result, trains are running half full of passengers, and the country roads which parallel the railroads are crowded with autos all day and half the night.

INDIANS IN ARIZONA WIN BATTLE FOR LANDS.

Ruling by the Secretary of the Interior that the Mohave Apaches Shall Stay Where They Are and Not Be Transferred to a Desert—House Authorizes Sale of Redmen's Acres in Oklahoma.

BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES. Aug. 19.—[Special Dispatch.] After two years of fight, the Mohave Apache Indians, quartered on the Camp McDowell (Ariz.) Reservation, have won their battle against being evicted from their special quarters and transferred by the Indian Department to a barren waste of the Salt River District. Chief Yuma Frank, of the Mohave Apaches will receive the decision made by Secretary Walter L. Fisher of the Department of the Interior, tomorrow.

THE DECISION. The decision involves some of the richest irrigated and irritable land of the Southwest. It also involves a famous plan of citizens of the Southwest to remove the Indians from their present garden spot to another reservation.

Dr. Carlos Montezuma, a member of the tribe, who was slain from his parents at the age of 4, and who is now one of the most prominent physicians in Chicago, represented the Indians in their battle with the officials of the Indian Bureau. Joseph W. Latimer of Chicago handled the matter as Dr. Montezuma's attorney. Mr. Latimer is just in receipt of Secretary Fisher's decision.

CAPTURED GERONIMO.

The Mohave Apaches captured Geronimo. Chief Yuma Frank, present head of the tribe, assisted in the capture. In recognition of this service and acting on the promise of the old Indian agent, Gen. Crook, Congress apportioned this land to the Mohave Apaches. It comprises about 25,000 acres situated on the Verde river, about thirty miles north of Phoenix. Irrigation ditches and a dam on the Verde kept them supplied with water, the 180 acres of the land was tilled by the Indians that the railroads have asked the Nebraska Secretary of State for all possible information concerning automobiles. One bit of information was that there was one machine in Nebraska to every forty-eight persons within the boundary. This includes men, women and children.

"We have no way of coping with the situation," say the railroad men. "Thousands who ordinarily take a railroad trip every year, are this summer remaining at home and taking automobile rides in the evening. Nebraska alone has purchased 14,500 cars since January, 1911, and the cars seem to get worse rather than better."

He arrived at the Johannishof Aerodrome at 4:50 o'clock this evening, having rested during the night at Bochum.

Audemars started yesterday on his trip of 325 miles to the German capital from Issy, five miles from Paris. He was competing for a prize offered for the longest distance covered by an aeroplane in one day. It was stated that a group of sportsmen had posted a prize of $20,000 for the first aviator who flew from Paris to Berlin.

Aug. 19.—According to the publishers of several religious journals here, plans are under way for a million-dollar merger to reorganize and enlarge a large section of the denominational press. It is proposed to retire some papers which are now operating at a loss and to merge others.

Five religious publications now are being issued from this city. The new syndicate, it is said, will have its headquarters in Chicago.

Belmont is doing her own marketing this summer as a protest against a system of petty graft which she says has become well-nigh universal in the households of the wealthy summer colonists here.

"This system of graft on commissions, by which the servants profit at the expense of their employers, is all wrong," says Mrs. Belmont.

LUNCH-COUNTER CAR LATEST.

Southern Pacific Insures New Feature for Travelers Between Los Angeles and San Francisco. BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Built for travelers of moderate means, the first "lunch counter car" ever put into service by an American railroad will be attached tomorrow to train No. 3 on the Southern Pacific, running via the "Valley Route" from San Francisco to Los Angeles. If the car proves a success it will rapidly be followed by others.

The counter will stretch the length of the car along one side, with an aisle on the opposite side, as in compartment sleepers and stools in front of the counter. Meals will be served at all hours.

Prices are to range about the same as those on excursion lunch counters. Fifteen cents will be asked for a sandwich, 25 cents for bacon and eggs, and the most expensive orders will be steaks and portions of roasts at 35-40 cents.

A NEW DAM.

A new dam, costing at least $50,000 will be started in the immediate future. Under Secretary Fisher's instructions, the few Indians who accepted allotments on the Salt River reservation at the urgent request of some minor Indian bureau officials will not forfeit their land they abandoned at Camp McDowell, but will be allowed to resume their old farms.

INDIAN LAND SALE.

HOUSE PASSES BILL. BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES. WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The House passed a bill today authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to sell under such terms as he may determine the land and timber in Oklahoma belonging to the Five Civilized Tribes. There are 10,000 acres of the land, which with the timber, are expected to bring upwards of $500,000. The proposed release of the 10,000-acre Indian prisoners of war at Ft. Sill, Okla., held for participation with Chief Geronimo in the massacres of twenty-six years ago, brought on a fight in the Senate today which defeated the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill. The bill carried an item of $200,000 to transport the prisoners to the Mesquero, N. M., Indian agency, and provide them with land.

SAM SCHEPPS ARR THE GREAT W

His Testimony Is Expected to Rose, Who Has Confessed All H of the New York Police to Murder of the Gambler Rosenthal.

BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 19.—[Special Dispatch.] Sam Schepps, who will testify for the State in the trial of Herman Rosenthal, was brought back to New York today from Hot Springs, Ark. His story of the murder, which he told to Dist. Attorney Whitman on the train running from Albany, will corroborate the story told by Jack Rose. The arrival of Schepps disclosed the fact that Thursday the police had been exerting every effort to have Schepps taken to Hot Springs, Ark. Today, however, Schepps was brought back to New York by the police. Schepps is a prisoner in the West. He is charged with the murder of Herman Rosenthal, a technical charge in the West. He is under surveillance of men in the District Attorney's office. He has been allowed to see his family in New York City. He is expected to go before the grand jury today and is expected to testify. He is expected to go before the grand jury today and is expected to testify. He is expected to go before the grand jury today and is expected to testify.

EFFORTS TO TAKE FROM WHIT

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES. NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Persistent efforts of the police to wrest Sam Schepps from the custody of Dist. Attorney Whitman and his representatives during the trip here from Hot Springs, Ark., have come to naught. Schepps, one of the most important witnesses in the Rosenthal case, is a prisoner in the West. He is charged with the murder of Herman Rosenthal, a technical charge in the West. He is under surveillance of men in the District Attorney's office. He has been allowed to see his family in New York City. He is expected to go before the grand jury today and is expected to testify. # THIRTY-FOUR OPPOSED.

Public Voters Approve of Bond which a Commendable Unanimity. BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES. NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—With only thirty-four votes opposed, the election of the grammar school district of the city, voted a bond of $100,000 at the election of Saturday. The bond was for the purchase of additional school property, both in the city and the country sections of the city. When put to vote last night, the proposition was defeated by a narrow margin.

NEWS BRIEFS.

H. Harding, secretary and manager of the "Country Club," recently arrived and operating under a State license, was convicted, yesterday, in Federal court, on a charge of violating of a city ordinance relating to the sale of beer in a public house. After giving notice of appeal, Harding is to be held in the city jail.

AIRSHIP FOR BERLIN.

THE POLITICAL WATCHTOWER

An informal meeting of Democrats was held yesterday afternoon in the office of County Chairman Nathan in the Chamber of Commerce building to settle the question of the county committee for the coming year.

Los Angeles county shall be controlled by Norton or by Dave Fuhrman. Both Norton and Fuhrman were in the hands of the greatest crisis that has prevailed, but no decision was reached. In the meantime, the expected appointment of Fuhrman as Chairman of the committee at San Francisco has not been made, nor has he been chosen by the Southern California members of the State Democratic Committee. It would not be surprising if the whole subject were to be settled this afternoon at the meeting of the Committee Fifty-One, although it hardly seems probable that committee's jurisdiction will be extended to the county.

The women of the Democratic Committee are working hard for the interest of their Presidential candidate. Miss Mary H. Fay is leaving for the north today to address a meeting of the women Democrats at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco. Mrs. Fay is also a member of the committee and is preparing to go out through the northern part of the county to secure the interest of the Legislative, Congressional and Presidential candidates for her party. They have taken a great interest in the committee since its formation in fact, so far, the Committee

NEW THEATER MAY BE BUILT.

Crown City Wants Out-of-Doors Auditorium.

To Stage Shakespeare's Most Powerful Productions.

Police Chief Gets a Slight Advance in Salary.

(Times of The Times, 12 E. Fair Oaks ave.)

PASADENA, Aug. 19.—Although they have slighted him of late, members of the Shakespeare club here are planning to build a new theater on the site of the old one, the immortal bard of Avon. So popular was the presentation under the auspices of the club of "As You Like It" on the lawn at the Pasadena Hotel last week that the giving of a Shakespeare play out of doors will be an annual event hereafter.

This renascence of interest in Shakespeare has caused the women of the club to aspire to still greater conquests. At the first business session this fall a plan to construct an open air theater at the rear of the clubhouse on South Los Robles avenue will be submitted by the president, Mrs. Calvin Hartwell.

"The idea is this," said Mrs. Hartwell last night: "The space is there and for a small outlay we could have a perfect little out-of-doors theater, capable of seating four or five hundred persons, and the only one of its kind in Southern California. Here we could put on Shakespeare plays and other dramatic productions. The theater would adjoin the club building. If there should be a shower in the middle of the performance actors and audience could simply go inside the club building and the remaining part of the programme be given there."

"Such a theater would not only be the source of many enjoyable and profitable afternoons and evenings to members of the club, but to the many others who would come to see the plays and entertainments. I think that as long as we have the space, and climatic conditions here are ideal, we should make the most of it. Although the matter has not yet been formally presented to the club, I believe the other members will agree with me that it is up to the first business meeting."

"Prior to three or four years ago we had courses in Shakespeare which were very popular. The members have felt that it took too much time from their household duties and so the study was not resumed. I think, though, that now we should offer more into the spirit of the object for which the club was organized, and, perhaps, take up this work again. At least, we should attempt to make it a 'Midsummer Night's Dream,' and others of Shakespeare's plays that are adapted to an outdoor setting at frequent intervals."

As to whether the proposed theater, if constructed, will be of a modern type, or a replica of the old Elizabethan playhouse, Mrs. Hartwell says nothing has been determined as yet. If the scheme is carried out, however, the improvement to the club grounds will be made an attractive one, which will undoubtedly command attention throughout the county.

OFFICIALS GET A RAISE.
The Board of City Commissioners increased the salaries of several of the city officials at yesterday morning's session. Chief of Police Wood's salary was raised from $12 a month to $12.50 a month, and Chief Clifford of the fire department received a $20 a month increase, making his salary the same.

Four lieutenant-capitains are soon to be appointed to the police department. They will receive $90 a month. Others to receive increases yesterday were Secretary Hax of the police department, whose salary was increased $5 a month; Park Superintendent Albrecht, who received an increase of $10 a month; and Chief of the police department, who received an increase of $5 a month each.

REQUEST DENIED.
H. H. Rose, chairman of the Band Committee of the Pasadena Labor Day Association, and C. J. Stevens, president of the organization, appeared before the Commissioners yesterday, and asked that they reconsider their determination of a week ago and provide a band for the celebration that has been planned for that occasion at Tournament Park. The commissioners declined to reconsider the proposition.

PROMINENT VISITOR.
Prof. Linsane Roberts, a veteran teacher of the deaf and dumb, and now one of the instructors at the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, is a visitor in Pasadena, having come here to be present at a family reunion, which will take place this week at the home of Dr. J. B. Townsend, No. 1414 Iowa street.

Prof. Roberts has been connected with this institution for twenty-four years and has been an instructor of the deaf and dumb for thirty-seven years.

Approves of the announcement made yesterday in dispatches from the East that Helen Keller, the famous deaf and blind girl, who was also mute, but who has learned to speak, is to become a Socialist orator, he said: "Miss Keller will be able to speak to only a limited audience. I think about 100 persons. She speaks quite distinctly, however. I met Miss Keller when she was about 18 years of age at our institution. Her progress has been wonderful. But others are doing much, too. We have now almost dropped the word dumb from our vocabulary. Practically all dumb persons can be taught to articulate, unless they have suffered from paralysis."

"The persons who are totally deaf now average about one in every 1000. I venture to say that in fifty years the average will be very materially lessened."

The reunion of the Roberts family which Prof. Roberts and Mrs. Roberts come to attend, will also be attended by William Roberts and Reuben Roberts of Redlands. A. F. Hamblen of South Pasadena and Aaron

Roberts of No. 405 North Fair Oaks avenue.

TOMORROW THE DAY.

Unless something happens to upset the plans of the members of the Board of Education tomorrow morning will announce the name of the new principal of the Pasadena High School. They say they have practically come to a conclusion in the matter, but they are reticent and insist that they will remain silent until the subject until this meeting is held.

It was learned yesterday that one of the eastern educators who was considered in Thomas Lloyd Jones, formerly superintendent of schools in Fond Du Lac, Wis., and now principal of the High School in Madison, that State. He declined the offer.

CITY BRIEFS.
J. H. Kretzler, of the city bureau of efficiency, has been asked to join the American Academy of Political and Social Science.

Rev. Leslie E. Learned, rector of all Saints Episcopal Church, has been appointed a member of the Committee on Arrangements for the Eighth Department Missionary Council to be held in Los Angeles October 14 to 18.

The proposed new traffic ordinance which was to have been considered by the Council today, will not be considered until the next week. The ordinance establishing the tax levy will be passed upon today.

Prof. Arthur H. Bakley, organist at the First Methodist Church, and Mrs. Bakley left yesterday for Toronto, Can., to return October 1.

The latest letters from Francis Baer and Theodore Jones, two Pasadena boys who spent the summer with Mr. Wilfred Grant in Labrador. They are now on their way home.

An example of the mistakes that are frequently made in the handling of times of excitement is afforded by the street car hold-up last Saturday night. Although both the conductor and motorman declared that the hold-up man had worn a blue bandanna handkerchief with a white dot in it, the handkerchief which was found in the car by Chief of Police Wood, is red.

A. G. Smith, county horticultural inspector, has found the first specimen of cochineal insect in Pasadena. Though the bug is valuable in the formation of a dye, it is also a pest and will be fought by local gardeners.

Now that the sparrows have been exterminated the finches are doomed. Chief of Police Wood has been authorized to issue permits for their destruction.

YOUNG WOMAN LEAPS INTO SEA.
COMMITTS SUICIDE AT SANTA MONICA AFTER STRUGGLE.

Man and Woman Drive Up in Automobile and the Man Is Seen Leaving the Car Carrying Victim's Shoes—Fisherman Tries to Save the Crazed Victim.

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 19.—An unknown woman about 25 years of age, who was last seen leaving her home shortly before 9 o'clock by leaping off the end of the Municipal Pier at Santa Monica into the water below. The body had not been recovered up to a late hour.

A desperate effort was made by H. W. Bunker of Santa Monica to prevent the young woman from jumping off the pier but she fought her way to the edge of the pier and was managed to break his hold and fall into the black waters below, where she disappeared from view.

Bunker was fishing on the pier when he noticed a woman in a blue dress and white hat walking slowly past him. When she got about ten feet from the edge of the pier she was seen to be carrying a large package and was about to jump when Bunker rushed to her and grabbed her by the shoulders. She turned and looked at him with a look of fury that he was compelled to release his grip.

Mrs. Winkler who lives at the beach asserts that she saw a man and a woman answering the description of the victim drive up to the end of the pier in a motor car. The man got out of the machine and walked on the pier. Later the man came back and the woman followed him. She was carrying a large package and was taken to the Todd undertaking parlors. She was apparently 25 years of age, had brown eyes and hair, and wore a black velvet gown lined with silk. Three of her upper teeth were missing and she was a lower was similarly true. She weighed about 115 pounds and wore two imitation diamonds on the third finger of her left hand. She also wore a gold locket, on which were engraved the letters "M. Z." The shoes she wore were made of black leather.

Armstrong, Rochester, N. Y. The body will be held pending an investigation by the coroner.

SAVED HIS MASTER.
A collie dog owned by Alfred Sackner was killed today in saving the life of his young master, Alfred, aged 8 years. The dog was the constant playmate of the boy and was taken to the Todd undertaking parlors. She was apparently 25 years of age, had brown eyes and hair, and wore a black velvet gown lined with silk. LONG BEACH, Aug. 19.—With the simple, but impressive ritualistic exercises of the Elks order, the cornerstone of the new home of Long Beach Lodge 888, B.P.O.E. was laid tonight at 11 o'clock in the presence of 100 members of the order, and several hundred spectators, attracted by the quaintness of the night ceremony, the hour selected being in accordance with the custom of the Elks in observing that hour in remembrance of absent brothers.

The lodge met as usual tonight in its hall on Pine avenue for a social session, and refreshments followed the regular business session. At 10:30 o'clock the lodge, headed by the municipal band, marched from the hall to the site of the new home on Cedar avenue, opposite Pacific Park, where the ceremony was to be held. The Elks, who had been equipped for the occasion, and special machinery placed for the handling of the heavy corner-stone. After two patriotic songs, the band, Dr. T. C. Donnell, organizer of the lodge and its first Exalted Ruler read a brief history of No. 888, and the Elks, who had been equipped for the occasion, and special machinery placed for the handling of the heavy corner-stone. ## Public Service: City Hall, Courts.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Board of Public Works yesterday refused to approve the map of a subdivision that had been improved without city inspection and today will send the City Council a general statement of the principles involved.

The Board of Public Utilities devoted most of yesterday to consideration of the freight-carriage and San Pedro street proposed franchise, but arrived at no definite conclusions and no reports thereon will be sent to the City Council today.

The ordinance fixing the city's tax rate will go before the City Council today. The rate will be 6 cents higher than last year.

Councilman McKenzie conferred with Vestie citizens yesterday in regard to a great highway way from Los Angeles to the sea, and round Venetians enthusiastic.

At the City Hall.

IMPROPER POLICY, SAYS WORKS BOARD.

PERMIT ADHERENCE TO STREET IMPROVEMENT LAW.

Declares Principle Wrong that Would Enable Promoters to Float Improvements Under Less Stringent Regulations Than Are Required of Others—Report to Council.

Among the grist of business that will go before the City Council today will be a section of the report of the Board of Public Works that will be of interest to those who have in mind the opening of new tracts of real estate.

The board takes a stand for the strict application of the city ordinance to all persons, whether they are improving a large tract or a city block lot.

The proposition has arisen over the Board of Public Works' refusal to approve the map of the Hillhurst Park tract, although members of the board yesterday admitted that the street work in this tract is even better than that required by city specifications.

The position of the board is stated by its chief, the fact that ordinance 12,130 and 15,512, regulating street construction, provide that it shall be unlawful to undertake any street construction without obtaining a permit from the Board of Public Works, or to undertake such street construction without obtaining a permit from the City Engineer, and also prescribing that this work shall be performed under proper inspection, and that certain fees must be paid by the property owner. The general street law also contemplates street construction under the supervision of municipal authorities, and the payment by the property owner of the expenses incident thereto.

In discussing the subject the Board of Public Works makes this statement to the City Council:

"It is a matter of frequent occurrence for property owners to suggest that they would like to improve their streets before the dedication of same, but the Board of Public Works has uniformly discouraged this suggestion, believing that it is an unwise and unsafe policy to follow.

If the city participates in enabling one man to float a subdivision throughout which the streets have been constructed, without proper inspection, the same consideration should be extended to every citizen, even if it is only the matter of a fifty-foot sidewalk and not a large body of land. In either instance, however, we believe it would be an improper policy to follow.

So far as the improved portions of Hillhurst Park are concerned, it is possible said improvements may be as good or better than those required under city specifications; but the principle which would enable the promoters of that tract to float a subdivision enterprise under less stringent regulations than are required of others, is wrong, and we believe should be discouraged.

No Advance Made.

Although the Board of Public Utilities devoted much of its time yesterday to a consideration of the freight-carriage and San Pedro street proposed franchise, but arrived at no definite conclusions and no reports thereon will be sent to the City Council today.

From the Municipal League came a section of suggestions for the freight-carriage franchise, the gist of which was that the permit or franchise be made revocable, with the clause that the railroad company should continue to give freight service on these lines until the city is ready to give a similar service. With this clause, it was urged that the commercial and industrial concerns would have assurance of continuation of freight service.

The board also conferred with the league in regard to the San Pedro street franchise, but reached no definite conclusions. Property owners on Los Angeles street are divided as to the advantages that might accrue to this street were it substituted for San Pedro street in granting of the franchise for a car line to relieve the congestion on Main street; but some of the larger property owners are taking up an active campaign among those who have opposed the project, and have won some of their over-advocates of the plan. They have presented no definite report to the Board of Public Utilities, but hope to be able to do so soon.

City's Tax Rate.

Chief Deputy City Auditor Fountain yesterday completed figuring the bond tax rates for the coming year and it is expected that the ordinance fixing the tax rate will go before the City Council today. The tax rate in the old portion of the city will be 6 cents per $100 of assessed valuation higher this year than last year. Then it was $1.48. The new rate will be $1.44 for the old portion of the city and the territory annexed in 1912. The general rate in all parts of the city is 30 cents per $100. The bond rates will be as follows: Annexation of 1896, 62 cents; that of 1899, 61 1/2 cents; that of 1904, 55 cents; Hollywood and Beverly, 19 cents; Wilshire, 28 cents; San Pedro, old section, 28 cents; San Pedro, annexed territory of 1904, 28 cents.

In Lieu of Fire Walls.

The Fire Commissioners yesterday approved the recommendation of Fire Chief Eley that the City Council be asked to deny the proposed amendment to the building ordinance providing for the elimination of fire walls on class A buildings, unless there shall be made a provision for the placing of an iron railing in front of the fire wall, such railing to be of two-inch galvanized iron piping, three feet high, with horizontal rails and standards at proper intervals, and also that this shall apply to the street side, and not to exposed sides at alleys.

The Fire Chief urged that walls are necessary for the protection of firemen when they have to work on top of the buildings of this class.

Ask for New Equipment.

The Fire Commission yesterday forenoon approved the specifications for the proposed new equipment for the fire department, consisting of motor-propelled combination chemical and hose wagons and motor-propelled tractor, and asking for bids for two such wagons and one tractor, provision for which has been made in the annual budget.

Better Protection Needed.

Fire Chief Eley yesterday asked the Fire Commission to ascertain from the Public Service Commission whether there is prospect of acquiring the water systems of the Eagle Rock and Glendale Consolidated companies, supplying the sections of the city recently annexed, and he recommends that if negotiations are not under way, some provision be made for giving adequate fire protection for the district, such as placing fire hydrants wherever possible. He also recommends similar action for the Rose Hill district.

Want Bridge Replaced.

The San Pedro Chamber of Commerce yesterday filed a petition to the City Council, asking that the foot-bridge extending from the bluff at the city park to the wharves, and crossing the railroad yards at San Pedro, be replaced. It was torn down at the time the park was improved, and San Pedrans fear they will lose what rights may have been secured by its use for almost twenty years unless it is replaced soon. They also state that it was used by from 300 to 400 men daily, who now have to cross the railroad yards and cross over cars to reach their work, thereby creating a constant menace to life and limb. The original bridge was built by public subscription.

Thinks Deposit Excessive.

Seward Cole has sent to the Board of Public Works a communication in regard to the present system of requiring deposit from persons who take out permits to excavate in the streets, and declaring that the deposit required is excessive when it is applied to the small operator. He suggests the adoption of a plan whereby there shall be a graduated scale of general deposit based upon the amount of the excavation to be made, and reducing the special deposit rate to an amount sufficient to accomplish the purpose intended, that of restoring the surface to its proper condition, in case this is not done by the person taking out the permit.

Another Resignation.

J. A. Crook yesterday filed with the City Clerk his resignation as a member of the Building Ordinance Commission, to take effect immediately. This will be presented to the City Council today. Crook gives no reason for this action.

Want Lighted Way.

Councilman McKenzie, chairman of the Light Committee of the Council, went to the City Engineer's office yesterday afternoon. To consider with persons especially interested there in the creation of a great white way between Los Angeles and the sea, and the improvement of the Washington streets to the boulevard constructed by the County Highway Commission. He found the Venetians enthusiastic for the project, and movement there is in the hands of W. McCarran, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Abbot Kinney.

McKenzie proposed the framing of a bill for passage at the next session of the Legislature, whereby authority can be given to the city to make an assessment district for the cost of illuminating this highway, as an offset for the portion that will be paid for by Los Angeles and Venice.

Building for Hollywood.

The Finance Committee yesterday decided to recommend that the City Council authorize Chief Inspector of Building Backus to at once prepare plans for the municipal building to be erected in Hollywood on the lot donated by Philo Beveridge before Hollywood became a part of this city. These plans are to be presented to the Council not later than September 15.

Commission in Charge.

The 240,000 grandstands to be erected in Exposition Park through donations made by C. A. Canfield and appropriations from the city and county, will be erected under supervision of the Park Commission. This was agreed to at a session of the commission yesterday forenoon. The commission at that time also received notice from the State Architect's office that the plans have been prepared for the proposed $200,000 armory building to be located in Exposition Park, and that the city and county will be called for about September 15, with work to start by the first of December.

City Hall Brevities.

The Fire Commission yesterday appointed Chief Eley's appointment, and Ronald A. Roxburgh as a fireman from the certified lists of the Civil Service Commission.

The Fire Commission yesterday recommended to the City Council that the erection of masts for wireless telegraph be allowed only on class A buildings.

A recommendation made by the Fire Commission yesterday, and which will go before the Building Ordinance Commission, is that the new building ordinance should make provision compelling the placing of fire exits on each floor of buildings used as apartment-houses, rooming, lodging or tenement-houses.

The weekly fire report made to the Fire Commission yesterday showed that there were thirty-two alarms of fire, of which there were five in the city and there was no loss and there were seven great fires. The estimated loss is placed at $19,225.

The Los Angeles Foundry Company yesterday renewed its offer to the Board of Public Works to erect a 25-cent per ton for iron cast at the city incinerator. The foundry yesterday referred to the City Electrician, with its recommendation, the request of the City Council that means be devised for the placing of red semi-red lights at each fire-alarm box, so that such places may be readily located at times of fire.

ATTORNEY FACES A CONTEMPT CASE.

COURT AROUSED OVER RELEASE OF A PRISONER.

Man Who Has Pleaded Guilty to Having Assaulted Wife Is Released on Bond by Act of His Counsel—Lack of System in the County Jail Is Shown.

An order issued by Justice Brayton of Long Beach on the application of Attorney W. H. Stevens, which resulted in the release of Albert E. Rowan from the County Jail, has caused a great deal of discussion, and has been pleaded guilty to having assaulted his wife and while sentence was pending, will lead to the District Attorney bringing proceedings in contempt against Stevens and possibly others. The District Attorney was instructed by Judge McCormick to take proper steps by affidavit to inquire why Stevens and others should not show cause why they should not purge themselves of contempt. The release of Rowan under the circumstances is a direct violation of the code and provision of the law, and Stevens said he would make a satisfactory explanation. He was represented before Judge McCormick by Attorney McKelvey, but the court said he did not care to hear his statement at that time.

Rowan, it seems, was sitting among the spectators last Saturday when his case was called for sentence. He was talking with his wife. The court was much surprised to learn that he was not in custody, but had been released on bail. An investigation was immediately ordered.

Deputy Sheriff Brown, who is also book-keeper at the County Jail, was taken into court yesterday and said Stevens spoke to him with reference to getting bail for Rowan. Brown told him it would require a written release and gave him the name of Justice Brayton at Long Beach, who had committed Rowan originally. Stevens later returned with an order of release signed by Justice Brayton, and Rowan was released.

It developed from Brown's testimony that there is no system in the County Jail by which it is possible to tell what prisoners have been released. He said he did not know that Rowan had pleaded guilty and was awaiting sentence.

Justice Brayton testified Stevens had gone to him with cash bonds for Rowan. Stevens had a certified check for $1500. He offered $750. Justice Brayton told Stevens he would have to have instructions from the sheriff's office before accepting the cash, and when he was told by Stevens that he had the cash, he cashed the check and gave the order of release. He said he would not have given the order if he had known the facts.

The court drew Stevens' attention to the fact that he was present in the County Jail by which it is possible to tell what prisoners have been released. He said he did not know that Rowan had pleaded guilty and was awaiting sentence.

He said he would not have given the order if he had known the facts.

The court drew Stevens' attention to the fact that he was present in the County Jail by which it is possible to tell what prisoners have been released. He said he did not know that Rowan had pleaded guilty and was awaiting sentence.

Justice Brayton testified Stevens had gone to him with cash bonds for Rowan. Stevens had a certified check for $1500. He offered $750. Justice Brayton told Stevens he would have to have instructions from the sheriff's office before accepting the cash, and when he was told by Stevens that he had the cash, he cashed the check and gave the order of release. He said he would not have given the order if he had known the facts.

"THE TIMES" GREAT BOOKLOVERS' CONTEST.

Persons entering this contest today, tomorrow, next week or any other time before the contest closes, will have exactly the same chance of winning a prize as those who previously entered.

Answers from entrants will not be accepted until the entire 77 pictures have been printed.

Copies of The Times from the date the first picture appeared can be purchased at The Times office. The first set of answers filed will have no preference over the last set, and you can get into the contest any time before it closes, and be on an absolute parity with all other entrants.

from exertion and pressure upon the chest while being dragged from which the heart was unable to rally."

Dr. Campbell's testimony was that Smith died of fatty degeneration of the heart and not from violence.

The trial has been an unusual one from the fact that more than forty witnesses were on the stand, those called by the prosecution giving it the opinion that a bruise on the heart wall was due to exterior pressure, while the defense doctors testified no bruise was observed at the first autopsy and consequently there could have been no violence.

STORIES DON'T HANG. DEVELOPMENTS PROMISED.

Amidst contradictory in character were read in Judge Conroy's court yesterday on a motion to set aside a default judgment in the suit of Lou Soyter against Mildred Burge, for the alienation of the affections of Sam Soyter, a stock broker. The case was continued until Friday, with a promise of interesting developments.

Mrs. Soyter won a $2500 judgment when the case was tried by Judge Willis. Mrs. Burge now comes forward with three affidavits, in one of which it was stated the papers were handed to another woman at No. 1119 West Twenty-fifth street on April 19, and were not received by her. At that time she denied she was the woman who had committed Rowan originally. Stevens later returned with an order of release signed by Justice Brayton, and Rowan was released.

As opposed to this is the affidavit of J. H. Dorney, manager of the Postal Telegraph Building, who testified that the woman who asserted she received the papers worked for the company as a switchboard operator. As soon as this was learned by the court, the case was continued until Friday, with a promise of interesting developments.

GOING AND COMING. JUDGES ON THE JUMP.

Judge Willis nearly solved the problem of being in two places at the same time and doing two things at once yesterday. He was on the bench at 2 o'clock. After handing down three decisions, he called the long calendar of Department Ten. Then he attended to a few probate matters for Judge Rives, who is on a vacation.

Slipping over to Department Eight in the Hall of Records, he called the Juvenile Court calendar for Judge Wilbur, who is likewise hibernating. He hurried to his own department, where a score of lawyers were waiting to have orders signed. Snatching a few minutes for lunch, Judge Willis attended to more lawyers and went to Department Six and called the calendar for Judge Monroe, who is in San Francisco. As soon as this was learned by the court, the case was continued until Friday, with a promise of interesting developments.

COURTHOUSE NOTES. BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

SUES ON LEASE. Ed Rice filed suit against the city yesterday asking $27,000 for deprivation of a lease to land on the east side of the inlet on San Pedro Bay, and west of the government jetty. He alleges that the city of San Pedro leased the land to him August 7, 1909, for fifty years at the sum of $11 a year. He remained in possession until June 10 of this year when he was evicted by the Salt Lake Railway, which had obtained judgment in an action brought against him.

ASKS FOR RECEIVER. The partnership troubles of E. N. Workman and Joseph Sturm were aired in Judge Conroy's court yesterday on the motion of Workman for the appointment of a receiver for the Adelphi Theater pending the termination of the suit against his partner. Workman alleges that he is not allowed access to the books of the concern and that too much money is expended on the show. Sturm avers that Workman is paying too much attention to the Princess Theater. The court will pass on the receivership this afternoon.

CONVICTS ROBBER. After a six days' trial a jury in Judge McCormick's court yesterday convicted Joe Budd, alias Joe Silva, of having held up and robbed A. V. Banlie in Lexington township. Budd set up an alibi, asserting that on the day the proceedings are void.

ALLEGANDRO-STREET CONTRACT. The Alessandro-street matter came before Judge Conroy yesterday on the demurrer of the city to the amended complaint of Jacob Waher, a property owner who asked the framing of an injunction restraining the city from vacating forty feet of the street for a private right-of-way for the Pacific Electric. Attorney Carpenter argued that the city has no power to make a contract with the company to vacate part of the street and that therefore the proceedings are void.

Assistant City Attorney Cryer held that the contract is favorable to the city as well as the property owners and should be set aside as a guarantee of faith. He further held that the court does not have the right to inquire into the acts of the City Council, which passed the ordinance. This ordinance was signed by the Mayor, but not published. When this action was taken it would make the vacation final. Judge Conroy overruled the demurrer and allowed the city twenty days to answer.

CONTRARY DECISION. INTERPRETS JUVENILE LAW.

In denying the application of a Christopher, a Greek, for a writ of habeas corpus, Judge Willis held yesterday that the Juvenile Court law applies to girls under the age of 21. Christopher is charged with having contributed to the delinquency of Rosa Morales, aged 19 years, who ran away from her home in Arizona with her younger sister, Teresa Morales. The latter is held as a witness in the County Jail.

Judge Willis' decision is contrary to that of Judge Root of Sacramento, who held that the law is unconstitutional on this point. Inasmuch as Rosa is a married woman, this in connection with her mature age, was considered as a reason why the case should be taken out of the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court.

Evidence in the hands of the District Attorney seems to point to the fact that Christopher intended to make a white slave of Rosa. The girls, now penitents, are anxious to return to their homes.

Loans in Home

An Unselfish Plan to Lend Money

Our plan of loaning money gives every reasonable advantage to the borrower. Our object is to help you build a home on your lot by offering you a loan on easy and convenient terms.

Since our organization we have helped to build more than 3885 prosperous homes. We have more than $3,000,000 in outstanding loans, over 200 separate loans.

These figures give you an idea of the large number of borrowers who have taken advantage of our liberal terms. They all find it an easy matter to repay a loan by our system—consequently, we do not own one dollar's worth of real estate taken by foreclosure, notwithstanding the magnitude of our loan business.

If you want our terms, write for our loan folder or call and see us.

Dining Room Wall Papers

A most comprehensive collection of beautiful papers, suitable for this most important room, is being shown in our Decorative Department. First in popular favor, are the many handsome tapestry papers that may be seen. These are particularly suitable for use above plate-rail or wainscot, of any wood. They may be had in foliage and verdure designs, closely simulating the woven fabric itself. There are also several reproductions of old frescoes, which are wonderfully rich in effect, and soft in color. Leathers and plain fabric effects, suitable for use in open panels below the plate rail, may be had to harmonize with any of these.

For those desiring the magnificence of gold or bronze, we show some beautiful metallic and iridescent papers, both figured and plain Japanese grass cloth shot with gold, American and Japanese leathers in Old English and Italian designs, among them being copies of some of the famed Cordova leathers, faithfully carried out in design, tooling and color.

Most cool and inviting are the soft gray foliage and scenic papers for use in the room with enamel wood trim. With the use of one of the many Mulberry, rose and old violet tones in plain fabrics for hangings, and Colonial or Georgian Mahogany furniture, a truly charming dining-room may be had, and a most appropriate background for any scheme of table decoration.

Another suggestion, especially suitable for the room that requires light and color, is the use of light self-toned fabric effects in papers, or grass cloths, with hangings of printed linen or Chintz in gay rich colorings.

An experienced staff of practical decorators at your command, and a stock of wall papers, large in assortment, to be found here. Inspection invited.

Principals in Unique Armenian Ceremony.

S. H. Beahcetour, son of an Armenian banker, and Miss Eugenia Paul of Fresno, who were formerly betrothed by a minister Sunday night after two weeks' acquaintance in this city. All the formalities of the pretty old-country usage were observed.

BETROTHED BY A MINISTER.

Banker's Son and Fresno Girl Become Engaged by Regulation Church Rite, Following Fashion. Bringing to a climax a romance that bore fruition in the short term of two weeks, S. H. Beahcetour, son of an Armenian banker and a prominent young member of the local Armenian colony, and Miss Eugenia Paul, daughter of a Fresno family, were betrothed Sunday night after the picturesque fashion of their race.

The ceremony was held at the home of Mrs. S. Papasian, No. 1014 East Fifty-third street, and the officiating clergyman was Rev. H. Khasoyan. According to the Armenian custom, Beahcetour gave to Miss Paul a ring and a Bible, while she presented him with a scarf pin, to seal the contract of betrothal.

The two met only a fortnight ago, when Miss Paul came here from Fresno to visit friends. It was a case of affection swiftly reciprocated; but the matter did not rest there. The Armenian fashion, Beahcetour went first to Mrs. K. A. Paul, the mother of his fiancée, and formally asked her hand in marriage. The wedding will take place next fall, upon a date later to be determined.

Beahcetour's father's fortunes were wrecked seventeen years ago in a "manus" by the Turks. He came at once to this country and succeeded in rehabilitating himself before his death. Miss Paul came to America at the age of 1 year. She is now visiting friends in the city, but will return this week to Fresno. Beahcetour lives at No. 1036 Alpine street.

PLANS HANDSOME HOME.

A handsome residence has been planned by Horatio Cogswell for John F. Kemp of this city, who will build in the exclusive West Adams Heights district, on Hobart avenue near Berkeley square. The house will be two stories in height, the exterior being of stucco and shingles. The downstairs finish will be mahogany and that of the second floor, white enamel.

IN THE INTERIOR COURTS.

Intoxicated Mexicans Declined to Jail to Prevent Their Making Trouble Sunday at the Plaza.
Fifty-two drunks, most of them Mexicans, faced Justice Rose in the Police Court yesterday morning. It was a record breaker for that tribunal. With few exceptions the defendants were fined $5 or five days. The men were taken into custody Friday, Saturday and Sunday. They were held for court yesterday to prevent their participating in the threatened riot at the Plaza Sunday afternoon. The demonstration was planned as a revenge for the shooting by police men of a Mexican at the same place during a riot the previous Sunday. There were a number of other men arraigned before the court on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. They were fined $80 or fifty days. They were picked up by the police in the fear they would try to incite a riot Sunday.

Steal From Relatives.

George Obet, 22 years old, was sent to jail for sixty days yesterday by Police Judge Frederickson after having been convicted of petty larceny on a complaint sworn to by his uncle, M. F. Obet, No. 888 East Forty-fifth street. The testimony showed that Obet had stolen many things, two whiskey barrels, thirty-two pieces of china, ten pillow slips and four sheets from his uncle, and a quantity of jewelry from her trouble. Obet used his uncle's horse and wagon to peddle the stuff, abandoning the rig on Winston street.

Held to Answer.

Juan Palomarez, 41 years old, a Mexican of No. 1516 Navarra street, was bound over to the Superior Court yesterday by Police Judge Rose to answer to the charge of assault with a deadly weapon. The complaint was sworn to by Stephen Lazamni, No. 318 Le Roy street. Palomarez tried to hold up Lazamni late Saturday night near the latter's home. Lazamni beat Palomarez almost into insensibility.

L. Baumgard of No. 122 Le Roy street, attracted to the scene by the highwayman's cries for mercy, took the man's gun away from him, after which he was taken into custody by detectives.

Beer Costs Her Dear.

Two bottles of beer cost Mrs. S. Freda $100 in the Police Court yesterday when she was fined that sum by Justice Rose for dispensing liquor without a license. She conducts a rooming-house at No. 3116 West Second street. The woman tried to show that she sent out for the beer for two roomers, not charging them for her trouble. She could not account to the satisfaction of the court for the presence of seventeen bottles of beer in the kitchen.

HAWTHORNE COMPLAINT.

Members of the Hawthorne Improvement Association filed a protest with the Board of Supervisors yesterday complaining that the streets in their district are in bad shape and that improvement work being done there is ineffective. They asked that an inspector be appointed to see that matters are bettered. The complaint was referred to Supervisor Neills for investigation.

NO BALL GAME TODAY; ANGELS MISSED TRAIN.

Series Between Oaks and Seraphs Will Be Vital—Hogan Will Have Patterson and Brown Back in Game. Hen Berry Says There's Nothing to It but the Dilations.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

GAMES TODAY.

San Francisco and Vernon, at San Francisco.
Portland and Sacramento, at Portland.

ANOTHER day of idleness and discontent for local football. There will be plenty of baseball today in San Francisco and Portland, but Washington-street park will be "dark" because of the failure of the Seraphs to make connections with the Owl at Port Costa last night.

The Tigers and Seals will renew their feud in San Francisco today, and Portland will act as host to the Sacramento team.

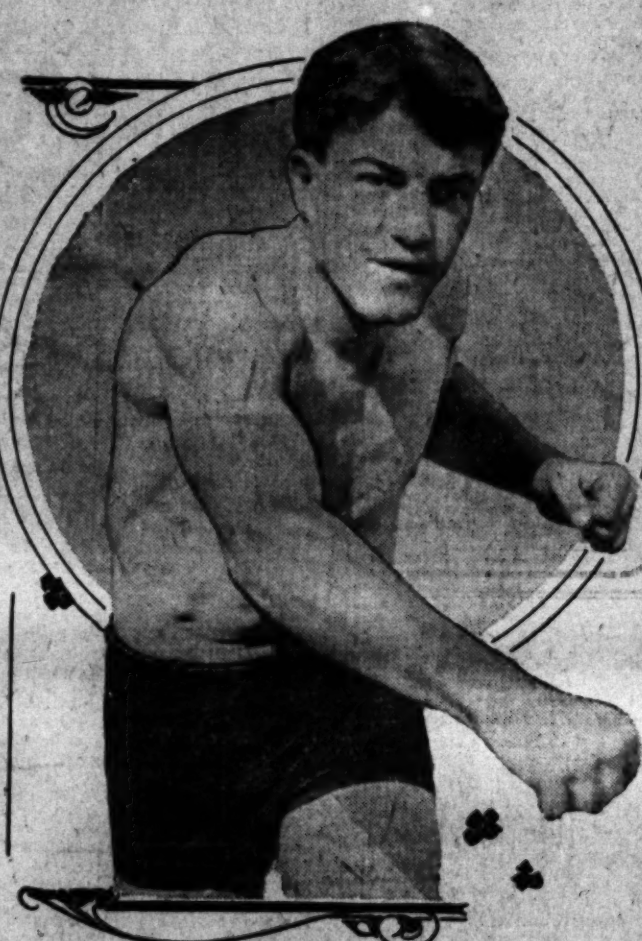

The Seraphs are expected to cast anchor here in time to keep their belated engagement with Oakland tomorrow.

Two weeks ago, President Baum expressed the opinion that the following series would practically decide the pennant. Two of these series are now history and the race is more uncertain than ever. Henry Berry now says that the next three weeks probably will settle it, and the chances are that he will be saying the same thing twenty-one days hence. As a matter of fact, Vernon, Los Angeles and Oakland all are in the race—very much so.

Not so very long ago several Oakland citizens squeezed out a few tears and expressed regret that their ball team should be counted out so soon.

Henry Berry, who has a habit of shying off to the side when it comes to the managerial end of the game, stated that he had no idea as to whom Dillion would send onto the firing line and supplemented the statement with one to the effect that he didn't care a inner's curse word, as they are all good.

CALIFORNIANS SHINE ON NEWPORT TENNIS COURTS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEWPORT (R. I.) AUG. 19.—Three score matches in the opening round of the national lawn tennis championship in singles were run off today on the Casino court. Nearly all the matches were decided in straight sets. One of the longest contests was between E. M. Hickman of Los Angeles and W. R. Burden of Newport, which went five sets. In the last set the Newport player had his man five love and 40-15, when Hickman rallied and took seven straight.

The Pacific Coast players showed up strongly. McLoughlin dropped only a single game against Lieut. F. R. McNair, U. S. N. There were several other players from the army and navy, but they were unable to cope with the civilians.

Three German players are entered in the tournament and two of them were eliminated. R. A. Auspitzer of Berlin being the only one left.

In the match between the two doubles champions, E. D. Little and G. F. Touchard, Little had no difficulty in winning in straight sets.

The doubles championship will be played tomorrow. M. E. McLoughlin and T. C. Bundy, the Pacific Coast challengers, are favorites in the betting at the Newport courts, over G. F. Touchard and E. D. Little, titleholders.

Clifton B. Hurd of Los Angeles, now a student in Harvard, played a plucky game with Karl H. Behr as team partner, against the Pacific Coast stars.

The match between E. M. Hickman of Los Angeles and W. R. Burden of Newport went five sets. Burden had Hickman five games to love and 40-15 on the fifth set when the California player broke through and won the match. Three of the four famous straight games from Burden to continue in the tournament. It was one of the most exciting rallies seen in a national tournament in many years.

Summary:

FIRST ROUND.
E. M. Hickman, Los Angeles, won from W. R. Burden, Newport, 7-5, 6-4, 6-3, 6-1, 7-5.
N. W. Niles, Boston, won from H. A. MacKinnon, Providence, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4.
G. C. Caner, Philadelphia, won from H. Kleinschroth, Berlin, Germany, 6-4, 6-7, 6-4, 6-4.
E. S. H. Fendegast, New York, won from A. D. Champion, Providence, 6-1, 6-2, 6-1.
Rowland Evans, Jr., Philadelphia, won from E. M. Letzen, Plainfield, N. J., 6-0, 6-3, 6-2.
D. Jones, St. Louis, won from F. W. Austin, Jr., Pawtucket, 6-3, 6-1, 6-2.
Richard Stevaux, Hoboken, won from R. Quinn, Newport, 6-0, 6-0, 6-2.
J. S. Brown, Jr., Newport, won from Rev. C. F. Neibel, Cincinnati, 6-1, 6-2, 6-1.
R. D. Little, New York, won from G. F. Touchard, Newport, 6-4, 6-2, 6-1.
William L. McKim, Short Hills, N. J., won from L. Cuesta, Second, Boston, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4.
H. R. Regier, Philadelphia, won from F. B. Boyer, Philadelphia, 6-2, 6-1, 6-1.
E. P. Fazio, Norfolk, Ct., won from E. H. Rogers, Jr., California, by default.
T. C. Bundy, Los Angeles, won from T. A. Jones, New York, 6-1, 6-3, 6-3.
M. E. McLoughlin, San Francisco, won from G. F. Touchard, Newport, 6-4, 6-2, 6-1.

PRIZE FIGHT PULLED OFF AT A COUNTRY CLUB.

Jack Clark, the Middleweight, Tells How Lord Tweedmouth and the Polo-Playing English Lords Were Entertained—Ring Was Made Around a Big Rug and Tweedmouth Acted as Referee.

JACK CLARK, the budding middleweight, the best Bob Welch at Vernon, Saturday, opened the bag yesterday and the cat sneaked out. For a long time we have been hearing rumors of a red-hot prize fight pulled off at one of the country clubs when Lord Tweedmouth and the other polo-playing English lords were in Los Angeles.

It was whispered that the audience consisted of the upper crust of society and fashion. Gossip leaders flapped seconds' towels and women alternately applauded and fainted. But, until yesterday, dark secrecy was maintained.

Jack Clark pleaded guilty yesterday: he was one of the pups; the other was a lad named Kelly.

It was never intended that anyone should tell; but it was too much to expect that any mere preliminary fighter could be counted out by an English lord; fanned by a leader of society, and then carry the secret to the grave.

Jack says that Lord Tweedmouth himself acted as referee.

"Lord Tweedmouth thought the fight was on the level," said Jack. "But I guess I will have to slip you the truth: it was fixed up between me and Kelly. They said that all the society people present had never seen a fight and they would expect it to end in a knockout; so the man that hired us said that either Kelly or me had better flop. I agreed to do it."

"I never saw such a swell crowd in my life as the one they led us into. They had cleared all the furniture out of the center of the room and made a kind of ring around a big rug. Kelly and me stripped off like it was a regular fight and this Lord Tweedmouth came into the ring to be the referee."

LORD TWEEDMOUTH REFEREE.

"Now, you boys, he says, just like that. 'Now, you boys shake hands, good; now fight.'"

"Say, lemme tell you that was some fight. I have been in amateur fights, but rough-house fights at dance halls and have fought three times at Vernon; but I never put my fists into such a scrap as Kelly and I put up at that country club on that rug, with them society women sitting round. Say, it was fierce. Whenever we came to a clinch Lord Tweedmouth would pull us apart and say: 'Hare, boys; break!'

"After we had fought a few rounds—I forget just how many—it came time for me to flop. I let Kelly have one last punch in the stomach that made him grunt. Then I took a punch and flopped over. I went down, and the English lord counted me out. All the women began to cry out: 'Oh, bring him to; bring him to.' They lifted me up and carried me to a chair and all the guys in dress suits began fanning me. Pretty soon I sat up and said I was better. Then we went home."

It is understood that the country-club fight was a feature of a big soiree given by a wealthy golfing tourist, Lord Tweedmouth and the other titled polo players being the guests of honor.

HOW CLARK BEGAN.

Clark's career has been picturesque from the beginning. He was discovered in a picturesque way by Willie Coe, the amateur lightweight champion, who now manages him.

Jack is a big mechanic who works in a tile factory. The delight of his young life used to be going to public dances; he didn't care much for the dancing part, but his soul yearned for the free fight that often went with the dance.

One night Willie Coe happened to go to such a dance and saw Clark try out three husky young sports one after another.

"Talent wasted," muttered Willie. He hunted up Clark and undertook his management. At one of the gymnasiums Coe put on the gloves with him and taught him to box.

Since then Clark has had six fights—three amateur and three professional. He lost his first professional fight to one Davis. Since then he has beaten Bob Graham and Bob Welch.

In the opinion of most sporting experts, Jack is the most promising middleweight who has appeared in this country for many years.

FAMOUS ATHLETES WILL REGISTER AT OCCIDENTAL.

BY OWEN R. BIRD.

THEL has been so much talk handed out about the various prospects of the colleges around here that an authentic statement was asked for from Occidental College as to just what famous athletes had actually registered at that institution.

This is rather too early in the year to ask for such information, but a list was obtained of those who have actually registered, and including those who have sent in their credentials or signified their intention of entering, to someone in authority.

It was found that practically every athlete in last year's wonderful prep class has either registered or practically done so. Sid Foster, all round athlete; Bill Annin, State intercollegiate champion in the mile and 480; Cook, track and baseball, Halberg, shotputter; Sherwood, track man, Rhinn, track, and Hayward, track man, all seem like established stars.

Craig and Hogan of Burbank High School have both sent their credentials, Craig being an exceptionally fast sprinter and Hogan being an all-round athlete, high jumping being his specialty. Loren Middough, who has made a low hurdle jump of 39.91 on a track which has also signified his intention of attending Occidental.

Hal Chambers and Bob Smith of Pasadena High have entered as has Sam McClung, the former prep and Long Beach High star. Seattle High star, Frank Morris, who entered with the Phoenix High, sends up Egley, Allan Creighton, and possibly, John Creighton. All of these boys are considered among the shining lights in Arizona and are voted for a draw. The majority thus went against Jack. He is going back to Chicago.

Downey High School will be well represented by Duke Walk, H. Squires and Joe Mansfield, three of the famous baseball team which created such a sensation last year. The first two formed the battery of the team. Alhambra High is sending up Tom McKay, pitcher; Pearson Emmett, first baseman, and Paul Kirkpatrick, brother of the famous Tiger who has won four letters for each of his years in college.

San Diego High School is sending Chester and Harold McIntosh, who are reputed to be two of the fastest ball-tossers in the south of the State. Frank Morris, who entered with the present senior class, but has been out for two years, will again try out for the football team. He got in several varsity games his first year and is fast and heavy.

Redlands University will provide Tigers with some basketball material in the person of Guy Daniels, the wonderful player, who was reported to have made Slat's Oliver of Whittier look like he was tied to a tree. These names are the only ones which the Tigers would divulge as having practically signed up.

It is a well-known fact that there are several other well-known athletes who have shown a marked leaning towards the Tiger institution, but nothing definite is known about their movements. Coach Pinal will return to this city about the first of September and will begin to win the candidates into line at once, as the first game of the season will occur on September 25, ten days after the first day of school.

Manager Lawson is arranging a full schedule for both the varsity and the second team, it being part of the plan to have the scrubs take about as many trips as the varsity. According to the above line of dope it looks as though the Tigers were in line for a big season and things seem

FIGHT NOTES.

Tom Jones and Jim Jeffries will start tomorrow for a deer hunt in Bear Valley. Jones will then leave for Cadillac to help train Wolcott for the Macky McFarland fight.

Lince Tom McCarey is trying to match Eddie Campbell of San Francisco and Battling Chio for the semi-wind-up to the Rivers-Mandot fight. Jimmy Johnson, who leaves for that East today, wants to stage three world championships in Los Angeles this fall. He wants to get a middleweight fight for Jack Harrison, the English middleweight champion; a match with Johnny Coulton for Eddie Morgan, the Welsh banty, and a chance for Harry Thomas with Johnny Kilbane.

An interesting event would be a battle royal between Frankie Conley's creditors. They are all trying to attach the receipts of the little Saturday fight. The hero of more tough fights than any other fighter now in the ring, Frankie has practically nothing to show for his work. Jack White is roaring again—this time over the result of his fight with Russell in New Orleans. He lost a newspaper decision; one paper gave the verdict to Jack; two to Russell, and one voted for a draw. The majority thus went against Jack. He is going back to Chicago.

STINSON RELEASED BY VERNON TIGERS.

George Stinson has finished his career as a Tiger. The big Vernon right silder was yesterday handed his release by "Happy" Hogan. The move was not wholly unexpected. Stinson's knees have been troubling him, and this has proved a severe handicap. Hogan was reluctant to release him, as he is one of the most conscientious players on the club, and really a star when in shape. Stinson led the club in hitting last season despite the fact that part of the time his knees were in such condition that he could not beat out many drives which other players would have converted into hits.

Arrangements have been made whereby Stinson is to act as scout for the Vernon club. He has not decided on his plans for the future, but is contemplating a trip to Byron Springs in company with Earl Rogers. It is not likely that Stinson will retire from baseball permanently.

HEN BERRY HAS FIERCE FIGHT WITH BUCK DEER.

Bald Head Punctured.

HENRY BERRY returned yesterday from a hunting trip in the Te-sachi Mountains, with a fine buck and a badly macerated scalp to show for his efforts at emulating Daniel Boone.

Thereby hangs a story of a one-round battle between said buck and Mr. Berry. The buck is dead, and Berry isn't; all of which leaves not the slightest doubt as to the outcome of the battle.

Thursday Berry brought down the animal in Sanitation Canyon. He took it for granted the buck was dead, and started in to quarter it. His surprise may be imagined when it jumped to its feet, and rearing up on its hind legs, lunged at him. Berry was entirely off his guard, and the buck caught him a blow on the head with one of its front feet. Berry was partly stunned, and this with the force of the blow, sent him reeling, and before he could recover his balance he had rolled 100 feet down the side of the canyon.

All this time he had managed to maintain his clutch on his faithful rifle, and as soon as he could gather himself together he brought the buck down for fair with another shot. Berry admits that he is no match for a wounded buck when it comes to a rough-and-tumble fight.

In the party, in addition to Berry, were Fred Simpson and Harry Brown, each of whom bagged a deer.

Boston Noses Out Detroit in Seventh Inning.

Giants Beat St. Louis Though Hits Are Few.

(By Federal Wireline Line to The Times.)
BOSTON, Aug. 19.—(Special Dispatch.) Bedient and Willett both pitched good ball this afternoon, but the local tower kept the hits scattered. Speaker, almost single-handed, won the game for Boston, all three of his hits starting rallies which eventually brought in runs. Corridon, the new Tiger recruit from Kansas City, had an exciting getaway.

He was sent to the bat for Willett in the ninth, spanked out a clean hit, and then stole second with ten feet to spare. The other Detroit batters, however, could not bring him around for the tying run.

Emmet Perryman.

Emmet Perryman is the young pitcher just purchased by Manager McGraw for the New York Giants from the Southern League.

was batted hard today, but sensational fielding by Becker, Murray and Snodgrass kept him out of danger. Salles was given poor support. The Cardinals failed to bunch their hits, and were never contenders after the second inning.

"HEINIE" STILL IS PACEMAKER.

Big Teuton Seems Fitter at Top With Stick.

Fans Are Now Interested in Climb of Bayless.

Vernon Outfielder Hitting at Merry Clip.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

The fans have become so accustomed to seeing "Heinie" Heilmuller's name at the head of the Coast League batters that his presence there fails to excite interest. "Heinie's" name continues to grace that position and right opposite is a percentage of .348, which everyone will admit is a very respectable figure for the trying month of August.

With "Heinie" apparently a fixture at the top, the fans are observing with interest the batting progress being made by "Dick" Bayless of the Vernon club. Bayless is batting like a fiend, or like a fiend is supposed to bat. As a matter of fact, comparatively few batters play baseball, while still fewer of the players bat like fiends. Anyway, Dick is batting some. He now has a mark of .333 to his credit, which is a big one for a small man.

Kane continues to set his back, but is now running second to Bayless as a result of the phenomenal individual batting rally which the latter started about three weeks since. The race between Bayless and Kane for premier sticking honors of the Vernon club promises to be close enough to pinch a hair.

Sacramento boasts but one .300 hitter among the regulars. Dear old "Deacon" Van Buren is the batting person to whom reference is made. He is showing the way to the youngsters with a mark of .322. Orr of the same club is clouting at a .333 clip, but he has not been in enough games to establish his right to this figure.

Linley and Krueger, the former supposed to be a "parlor" hitter, are rumpling the trademark for fair, and they have gained fame as the only Portland regulars in the 200 club.

Del Howard of the San Francisco club is living up to a lifelong reputation for hard hitting. Harder, however, with .304, is the real leader of the Seals. And what do you know about it? "Kid" Mohler is a fine and steady steady with .304.

One hitting continues as Oakland's best. His average for the season to date is .321. Sharpe is the only other regular outside of the pitchers, in the .300 class. Following are the percentages to date:

DIAMOND CHIPS FOR FANS.

When Tom New Truck Egan Took a Whisk at Being a Prizefighter—Many Qualifies as a Prophet by Picking This as a San Fielder—Other Gossip.

BY HARRY WILLIAMS.

He recruited Egan for the purpose, and inside of an hour it had been arranged for "Truck" and Egan to fight for the league championship in the gymnasium of an athletic club which had its palatial quarters in an abandoned barn.

Burge slipped off to the clubhouse and indulged in a thorough rub down. When he appeared at the gym he was wearing the scant regalia of the professional boxer, consisting of trunks and ring shoes. He whaled the punching bag viciously by way of showing himself he intended to do to Egan.

"Truck" didn't know a boxing glove from a first baseman's mitt, and he crawled through the ropes grinning good-naturedly. He was wearing a street dude and as first, declined to shed anything except his coat. His seconds finally induced him to remove his collar.

The four high scores of each group divisions for two games of all-round play in a preliminary or qualifying tourney which occupied three days. The four high scores of each group entered the major tourney; the second highest four, a minor tourney, the others retiring. The entrants grouped as follows:

Division No. 1.—Hugh Henderson, H. B. Reynolds, T. T. Bell, Julius D'Orio, W. Valentine, G. L. Jennings, Frank G. Farmer, Bert March, B. L. Backus, H. L. Langrey.

Division No. 2.—Earl W. Banks, E. C. Waterhouse, A. J. Klinka, J. W. Wendemuth, P. Whalen, Guy Garwood, A. N. Logan, Rex B. Wood, G. A. Kaiser, Charles Nelson.

Division No. 3.—J. H. Horr, Louis Ginsburg, T. J. Harrigan, H. C. Harris, John, H. Scott, L. J. Goldsmith, Argo Crawford, F. D. Nichols, F. A. Ives, Dr. W. L. Turner.

Division No. 4.—Alfred Jordan, William G. Hill, L. R. Wimmer, Harry Lieberman, A. H. Barnes, L. O. Newcomb, P. B. Perry, Joseph Warner, Dr. B. D. Logan, C. H. Stoddard.

Play commenced August 5, showing each day unexpected defeats of well-known champions, until it was seen that the major tourney was to be played between Henderson, Reynolds, Jordan, and Lieberman, with Banks, Horr, Ginsburg, and Bell contending in the minor event.

On the eighth day Henderson eliminated Jordan by defeating him in a hard-fought match, the score being one win and seven draws. Jordan made the same score in defeating Lieberman in their contest for third and fourth places. Henderson and Reynolds required an extra day to complete their final match for the title, making draws until the fifth game, which Henderson won, and with it the championship and $350 as first prize. As second, Reynolds scores $150; Jordan takes $125, and Lieberman, $100.

Another day was required for the completion of the minor tourney, in which Hill defeated Bell one to nothing, and three draws. Horr beat Ginsburg one to nothing and nine draws; Banks defeated Horr two to nothing and two draws, his two wins being made with the black pieces in the "switcher" and "dunder" openings. Banks, Horr, Ginsburg, and Bell were the final entries in the minor affair. Both Ginsburg and Lieberman are looked upon as coming champions on account of their fine performances throughout the tourney.

The next meeting of the association, the tourney being open to all residents of America, was held on August 12, at the point offering the best inducements in the way of prize funds. Brawl tournaments are favored by the players present at the meeting just concluded.

CHESS AND CHECKERS.

The checker championship of America was won by Hugh Henderson of Pittsburgh, Pa., in the most interesting tournament ever played on the continent. Just ended at Cedar Point, O., wherein H. B. Reynolds of Baltimore, N. Y., took second place; Alfred Jordan of Toledo, former champion of England, third, and Harry Lieberman of Kansas City, fourth—as survivors in the elimination contests of forty competitors for the title, trophy and $425 in prizes. Surprises were many, but none equalled the relegation of N. W. Banks, former champion, to the minor tourney, in which he won first prize, and the exclusion of Jordan, fresh from a triumphal tour of the world, from the final round, and his drop to third position.

Banks had relinquished his title as American champion to the American Draughts Association, turning it over without reserve, to be played for at this tournament. A silver trophy emblematic of the title was presented to the association by the Pittsburgh Leader, to be played for in successive American tourneys.

The Executive Committee allotted the forty players to four groups of ten, each group to play a preliminary or qualifying tourney which occupied three days. The four high scores of each group entered the major tourney; the second highest four, a minor tourney, the others retiring. The entrants grouped as follows:

Division No. 1.—Hugh Henderson, H. B. Reynolds, T. T. Bell, Julius D'Orio, W. Valentine, G. L. Jennings, Frank G. Farmer, Bert March, B. L. Backus, H. L. Langrey.

WILLIE VAN COURT'S COLUMN.

Joe Rivers started his training Saturday and did a little light work Sunday and yesterday afternoon. His work so far has consisted of rope skipping, shadow boxing and punching the bag. Joe Levy has added Tommy McFarland, the San Francisco lightweight, to Joe's training staff. This will give Rivers three sparring partners to work with. He has already engaged Battling Chico and Charlie Dalton.

Rivers put in a strenuous time at Wheeler Springs in climbing mountains, wrestling with Willie Rooney and horseback riding. Joe looks bigger than ever around the neck and shoulders, and Joe Levy says he is enough overweight to make him work hard enough to put him in the ring better than ever.

Levy also says that he cannot figure that Joe Mandot can lick Rivers. He says Rivers is faster, stronger and a better fighter than Mandot, and if the betting is anything near equal, he will take a bigger chunk on Rivers than the odds did on anybody.

Willie Rooney says he intends to have Joe do more rough work for this fight than any he has trained him for. Rooney is as confident as Joe Levy, and says the fight will not go over fifteen rounds and Rivers will be the winner.

Rivers himself says he is very confident of winning, but knows that Mandot is a good boy and will not neglect his training no matter how good he believes his chances to be. He will start having Wednesday afternoon. And Levy says it will be some hard going every time Joe starts.

I don't believe I have ever seen Rivers look as good as he does now at this early stage of his training.

Rivers came very near losing Rooney for a trainer while at Wheeler Springs. They were invited to take a ride over to Cold Springs and stay overnight. "Cold Springs" is twelve miles from Wheeler's, over a rough trail and they never allow the horses to make the round trip the same day.

When they arrived there, they went into the pool and had a swim. While Rooney was doing some of his stunts, he spied a little water snake swimming right towards him. This was enough for Willie and he beat it for the shore all excited and hurried to Joe.

"Did you see that snake, Joe?" "Yes, said Joe, "but he is a harmless one and will not hurt you."

"Never mind that bull, said Rooney. "I came up here to train you and not to see snakes. Some of these guys come here to get rid of snakes, but not me; back to the hotel for me."

The last Joe saw of Rooney he was tearing on his clothes as fast as he could and beat it back to the hotel. When Rivers landed at the hotel Rooney was still talking about snakes. He came right at the supper table. Rooney heard a cat mew and jumped up and asked: "What was that?" "A cat," said the landlady.

"But," said Willie, "I never heard a cat mew as loud as that."

"But that is a wildcat out in the mountains," said the landlady.

"What a wildcat!" asked Willie. "Back to Wheeler's for me right away and off he went for his horse. D'Id he could not ride the horse back that night, he said: "Baddle a cow, I am going to beat it quick."

Willie was finally satisfied to stay when Rivers promised him he could sleep in the same room with him. "No more of that woolly west stuff for mine," says Rooney.

Joe Oretta, well known in Los Angeles, writes from Trenton, N. J., that he has a clever little 116-pound boy that is making good in the East. He also says that Joe Rivers is all the talk in the East and would be a bigger drawing card than Wolcott or any other lightweight in the country.

He also says that he thinks that Joe can beat any of them, as he has seen most of the best of them fight. Those moving pictures of the Wolcott-Rivers fight must have made a hit for Rivers in that country.

TROJAN RUGBY SCHEDULE SUFFERS SLIGHT CHANGE.

After the Stanford variety game, which comes on October 19, it will be "up and at 'em" until after Thanksgiving. Following the Stanford variety game comes Santa Clara on November 1 and one week later the Trojans will take on the famous "all-star Australian" team. There will be a repeat of the best of the best when it will be the California variety.

GOOD CHANCES WITH NORTH.

The northern colleges have a little on us in the South, in that active practice begins during the last week of August, thus giving them two weeks lead. But Stanford will come South just before the big northern intercollegiate game, so will be trying out its team; in much the same manner as U.S.C. will be in the game with the California freshmen; so the Trojans have a chance to win. Then California comes South after the big game in the North and will have a little less ginger than before, so again U.S.C. has another good chance. The southern teams are all poised for rounding into shape about the middle of November, so can be counted on for the best showings during this month.

The U.S.C. variety will practically be intact this year, as all of last year's men are coming back, besides all the new high school freshmen, who expect to enter the university. It will take a big equal to keep up with the schedule and Manning hopes to have enough men to keep fifteen men on the side lines, who are just as good as the fifteen that start in the game at first.

There has been a slight change made in the football schedule for the coming season, but it will in no way affect the ultimate result of the season. Santa Clara will be brought South for the clash with the Trojans on November 1 instead of November 14. This is in date that Pomona and the University of Denver meet at Claremont, but the rearrangement makes it better after all for the city end of the schedule, as on November 14 the Oxy Trojans and the Pomona Sage Hens are due to battle on Bear field, and it would be working a terrible hardship on the football fans of the city, to make them choose between the Santa Clara-U.S.C. game and the Oxy-Pomona game, as would have been the case had the schedule stood "status quo."

In bringing the Saints down the Trojans are undertaking one of the most severe seasons in the history of the university. The first big game of the season for the variety squad comes October 12, when Stanford will try to get revenge for the showing-up it got last season here at the hands of the local university. The variety will have only one match game before this contest, and that will be with the California freshmen at Berkeley, October 12.

LOOKING TO FRESHMEN.

Prior to these games the U.S.C. freshmen will be lined up against all the local high schools and colleges. The Trojans have a team of veterans returning, but for the added strength this season the variety must depend on the class developed among the freshmen. Nearly all the students graduating from southern high schools, who play Rugby, are going to enter the university, and on this, Manning, Capt. Adams and Bovard are largely banking for success in the coming season.

The first game will be with the California freshmen, as stated above, and the local fans must not think badly of the squad if it is beaten in this game, as it is the intention of Coach Manning to try out all the men on the squad, and as there will be about forty-five on the trip it will be readily seen that the best results in the matter of a score cannot be obtained in this game, but the ultimate in the betting odds will show just what men can be counted on for the first string.

Baseball incubates a lot of "bugs" both on the field and in the grandstand, but it remained for Charlie Graham of Sacramento team to discover the undisputed holder of the "bug" championship.

Just before spring training started, a chap by the name of Becker, hailing from Klamath Falls, reported to Graham for a tryout. Flattering and flattered, Graham accepted him as a first baseman. He was disillusioned, however, when he first glimpsed his recruit.

Becker was architecturally not unlike Mr. Wad, and he had a bay window on him that it would have taken six months of training to take down to athletic proportions. Graham's disillusionment was complete when he saw his "find" on the field. Becker was six feet tall and showed his skill at first. He obeyed instructions to the point of going out, but he made the mistake of selecting third base. It took considerable time to convince him that first base was not located at that corner of the diamond. A great fight then ensued on Graham. He realized that some of his humorously inclined friends put one over on him.

Becker, who was a barber, was advised to return to his trade. He accepted the advice, but he still harbored visions of future greatness on the diamond. About that time Vernon arrived in Sacramento, and Hogan, going out in search of a toner treatment, wound up in Becker's chair. The latter unfolded his opinion that Graham didn't know a real ball player when he saw him. "Happy" had already heard of the incident.

"Now, I'll tell you," said Hogan, after listening to the rattle as long as he could endure it. "I think just about as much of you as a barber as you do of Graham as manager." And with but half of his face mowed, Hogan betook himself to another chair and had the job finished.

LOCAL MAN SENSATION.

Pickman of Los Angeles Makes Sensation on Straight Games and Wins Best Set in Newport Tennis Tourney.

NEWPORT (R. I.) Aug. 19.—Three score matches in the opening round of the national lawn tennis championship in singles were run off today on the Casino court. Nearly all the matches were decided in straight sets. One of the longest contests was between R. M. Pickman of Los Angeles and W. R. Burden of Newport, which went five sets. In the last set the Newport player had his man five love and 40-15, when Pickman rallied and took seven straight games, and the match.

The Pacific Coast players showed up strongly. McLoughlin stopped only a single game against Lieut. B. McNeil, U.S.N. There were several other players from army and navy, but they were unable to cope with the civilians.

Three German players are entered in the tournament and two of them were eliminated. A. A. Spittler of Berlin being the only one left.

In the match between the two doubles champions, R. D. Little and G. F. Touchard, Little had no difficulty in winning in straight sets. The doubles championship will be played tomorrow. V. E. McLoughlin and T. C. Bundy, the Pacific Coast challengers, are three to one favorites in the betting odds. The best show over G. F. Touchard and R. D. Little, title holders.

DRUMS OF OUDH BIT OF HISTORY

Famous Sketch at Orpheum
Conjures Up Past.

Former Resident of India Describes Tragedy.

Impressive Playlet Vivid
Replica of Facts.

BY MARSHALL D. TAYLOR.

Spurred upon fact and presented in a thrilling and typically military manner, "The Drums of Oudh" is one of the most realistic character sketches ever portrayed on a local or foreign stage.

To an Anglo-Indian like myself, who understands the natives and can speak their language, and knows what it is to have been under arms, "The Drums of Oudh" appeals very forcibly. The moment the curtain went up the very atmosphere seemed impregnated with the subtleness and awful solemnity of that land of mystery. I could almost smell the odors from the bazaar, hear the babel of voices, and see the strange garbed natives grouped around the many stalls, planning and scheming some atrocious deed.

The whole play centers around an insignificant and indigestible biscuit made of flour and water. In India, this biscuit is known by the name of chapatti. In the religious and political affairs of the country, the chapatti plays an important part. While it affords sustenance to millions of the natives of northern Hindustan, it has also been the medium through which empires have been lost and set up, and it is used as a secret message whenever trouble is impending.

PASSING THE CHUPATTIS.

The fakirs, or religious mendicants after first supplying their courtesies with chapatti, send these men to the heads of native villages with instructions to have others made like them and distributed to the masses. In an incredibly short space of time the whole of native India knows that something momentous is about to occur when their aid and sympathy will be sought in the coming trouble.

Lucknow was quiet. No quiet that the British regiment had been ordered away to quell an uprising in some distant portion of the province. The officer commanding must have paid little attention to the clamor of the Mohurum. Only a handful of whites had been left to protect the foreign residents.

During the Durra, Poohba, the Mohurum and other great festivals, the natives become so imbued with religious fervor that they become fanatical, often raving maniacs. No matter how loyal a servant may be, his religion comes first. He will sacrifice everything in order to participate in the rites and ceremonies attendant upon such an occasion.

One of the great religious festivals was being held. The natives became fanatical. The time was propitious for a massacre of the hated "feringhis" (foreigners). Up till then the servants had remained loyal. After murdering the entry, a chapatti, they rushed into the officers' quarters in the temporary barracks. From that moment the lives of the whites hang in the balance.

THE DRUMS OF OUDH.
But what were the drums of Oudh, what did the incessant semi-subdued noise mean? It was nothing more nor less than the hum from the bazaar. Countless thousands of men were talking, planning the downfall of the Christians, gloating over the fact that innocent babies of white women had been ruthlessly torn from their mothers and flung high in the air to be caught on uplifted bayonets of malicious sepoys.

Strange and terrible tales were being told and circulated by the rabble. The demon of lust and hatred stalked among these thousands of half-civilized men. Laughter gave place to snarls, then to savage yells. Like a huge Cyclops possessed of a devil, this fanatical host arose, brushed aside all decency and rushed from the bazaar to commit rape and murder.

A CRITICISM.
I have only one adverse criticism to make in regard to the acting. It is a serious one, but one that can easily be remedied. Native servants in India, whether they be Hindoo, Mohammedan or Ganesha, never enter or leave a room in the noisy and unnatural manner in which the two servants play their parts in "The Drums of Oudh."

After entering a room, the servant should remain passive, and not speak or move until the white master addresses him. Again, after announcing dinner or in fact any meal, the servants should stand behind his master's chair until the course has been served, when he salaams and retires.

Otherwise the two native servants act their parts well. If they will only follow these suggestions, they will not only lend more dignity to the play, but go through their important parts in true keeping with the atmosphere of India during those troublous times.

JEANNETTE BEATS MADDEN.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—(By A. P. Night Wire.) Joe Jeannette, who expects to meet Jack Johnson next month, met Jeff Madden of Boston in a ten-round bout in Madison Square Garden tonight, and an outclassed man that the fight was stopped in the second round. Jeannette weighed 166, five pounds more than his opponent.

Tom Sharkey, who was introduced to the crowd, said he intended to re-enter the ring and wanted to meet Bob Fitzsimmons or Tommy Burns.

Aquatic Development.

The open-water swimming races, which will be held this week by the Los Angeles Swimming Association at Venice, are a step in the right direction. It will be the first race of its kind in southern waters. The American swimmers as a class need more of this open-water work. All the best American records have been made in tanks where there are a great number of turns, thus enabling the swimmer to gain speed from the "push off" at the end of each lap.

In Australia, England, Sweden and in fact all the other countries the swimming races are held in the rough water, where the real test of ability comes and for this reason our swimmers do not make the best showing in the foreign contests.

More of these rough-water races would develop the American aquatic stars, so when the next Olympic rolls around they will have some of our own men in the running and not have to depend on a lot of Sandwich Island natives to bring home the bacon.

Back to Broadway.
Jimmy Johnson leaves this morning for dear old Broadway. James left this city during the first week of last June and was going back right after the White-Moran battle June 1, but he stuck; now the bunch back at 1462 Broadway are wondering why.

Jimmy's idea in going back is to see that the Madison Square Gardens is running all right, as he is Billy Gibson's right-hand man back there and then there is another reason. Mr. Johnson wants to get Jim Driscoll when he lands in New York this fall and after a few of those ten-round affairs, bring him out to the Coast.

Jimmy says that Driscoll is the greatest fighter he ever met in his life, and that he is one of a very few with whom he would be seen walking down the street.

Arry Also Goes to Gotham.

Little Arry Thomas goes with Johnson and will be sent against some of the best featherweights in the East. Then he will come back.

Yets Will Be On Job.
For once all the southern colleges are going to have veteran football squads and there will be none of this "byways and hedges" stuff at the last minute to find a half-back when the star sprains his ankle just before the big game.

All the teams will lose a few, but the backbone of the team in every case will be present when the muster roll sounds.

Cromwell and Comstock Busy.
Coaches Cromwell and Comstock have a likely crew lined up for next season's track schedule at the University of Southern California. The whole Citrus Union High School team, with the exception of Whitted, who is going to Stanford, will be in the university this fall. As a few of these bantams are in the giant class, Coach Manning will probably land on them for the freshman football team.

What would give more real pleasure in this land of sunshine and splendid boulevards, than a great big touring car, which you could see every day in the year? The Times gives you a chance to win one at absolutely no cost to yourself in the Brookview Contest. A passenger touring car, fully equipped, with outfit listed regularly at $1750.00. It is a beauty. Any woman can drive it.

FULLERTON'S REVIEW.

the job. Instead, within a few days after McGraw's threat, Bush was let out and Finerman set to umpire for the Cubs. The result was another clash and Lynch suspended. Lynch, making him ineligible for the start of the crucial New York-Chicago series, Chicago, fined Zimmerman and repeated his charge that Zimmerman was yellow and afraid to play against New York.

When Myers and Doyle attacked an umpire Lynch said that they deserved suspension, but that he would not suspend them on the eve of a Chicago-New York series because it was too important. He suspended Myers on the eve of a more important series.

In the latest trouble, Finerman showed Lynch in the face and Lynch was suspended for retaliating, or starting to retaliate.

The facts thus stated ought to be sufficient to show that the National League still is "the New York League," and that, as President Young once said, "There is where the money comes from."

The public just discovered last week that the major league players have a union, and more different ideas of what the players are doing have been printed than there are newspapers. The fact is that the new organization started in June, as an immediate and direct result of the move to suspend Lynch and an insulting bleacherite. The two leagues held meetings, chose Dave Fultz, the Chicago player, as president, and elected down to work. They have done very little talking, but the facts came out when the American League players held a meeting in New York to draft laws and discuss measures.

Many of the players are giving it a good deal of thought. It is a strike, and that there is no intention of a strike. From one high in the ranks, I learn that the chief objects are:

Representation of the players on the national commission and a voice in the making of laws.

Insistence upon better protection of players on the field.

Garry Herrmann says there is no cause for discontent among players, but the fact is they are more discontented this season than they have been for years. The overbearing rulings of the commission and arbitrary punishment of players without a hearing has stirred them to earnest action. A few of the players think that the movement will result in demands for higher wages, but the cooler and more sensible leaders declare no such object is considered. They want protection and a voice in their own government—and it would seem they are entitled to at least that.

The one thing over which they are most bitter is that Ben Johnson in the stand the day of the Cobb incident, could have heard both sides in a few moments, but, departed, went to Boston and sent the sentence back. It wasn't the sentence itself, but the fact that they were refused a chance to present their side in New York as at all that stirred up the players.

The chances for close finishes in the major leagues are much brighter. The teams are turning into the stretch now, and from here it looks as if the game is going to be a close one. Besides both the Red Sox and the Giants have harder going from now to the finish than either the Cubs or Athletics have, and the trailers have a fine chance to get up. If either the Cubs or Athletics were to get within striking distance, they will win, but the handicap is heavy, even with the gaps closed as much as they have been in the last two weeks.

WILLIE RITCHIE SIGNS FOR TOMMY MURPHY.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Willie Ritchie of this city, the challenger for the lightweight title, has been signed to box twenty rounds here on September 8, Admission Day, by Promoter James Coffroth. Ritchie's opponent probably will be "Harlem" Tommy Murphy, now in New York City, who expressed a willingness to meet any boxer whom Coffroth might select on the day named.

Coffroth wired to Murphy tonight and expects an early reply.

"I don't decline the match," Coffroth will sign either Jack (One-Round) Hogan, or Frankie Burns to box Ritchie. The fighters are to weigh 133 pounds ringside and the bout has been scheduled at 10 a. m.

GRAND CIRCUIT AT SALEM N. H.

SALEM (N. H.) Aug. 19.—For the first time in the history of the Grand Circuit, a meet will be held in New Hampshire, beginning tomorrow at Rockingham Park, and lasting five days. The races will be held in connection with Rockingham Fair and the purses will aggregate $43,700.

The feature race for tomorrow will be "The Hub" for $25,000, a purse of $1000, in which are entered Brannan Baughman, the largest money-winning pacer of 1911; Peter the Second, from Dundee, Mich.; Jim Logan, from California; Akar, from the stable of Ed Geers, and five other well-known horses.

On Wednesday "The Granite State" for 2:10 trotters, purse $5000, will be decided with the $2000 free-for-all trotting championship and the two-year-old trotting divisions of the $11,000 American Horse Breeders' stakes. Eaden, winner of two $10,000 stakes in the Grand Circuit this season, is entered in the 2:10 trot against a strong field.

The free-for-all trot will bring together Billy Burke, Colorado E. Anvil, Gay Audubon and others. Thursday will have the three-year-old trotting division of the American Horse Breeders' $11,000 stake, the 2:12 pace for $2500 and 2:12 trot with famous horses for entries. On Friday and Saturday there are scheduled eight races for $1000 purses and a trotting free-for-all amateur drivers for $500.

GRAPERS TURNED OUT.

Box Seat Swindle at Chicago Ball Park Ends in General Cleaning Up.

(By Federal Wireline Line to The Times.) CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 19.—[Special Dispatch.] Numerous complaints by spectators at the New York-Chicago series of being defrauded by grafting ushers have decided President Murphy to make a clean sweep of the force now employed at the West Side Park. Just as soon as new men can be provided, the present ushers will be looking for other jobs.

The box seat patrons, the best paying supporters of the club were the victims. They bought boxes at $1 per seat and when they went to the game they discovered that the coupons were worth nothing and if they wished to see the game, they had to pay the crooked ushers.

The ushers have a habit of taking a tip from an ordinary grand stand patron, and then handing out a box seat. When the patron who actually holds the box seat coupon appears, the poor seat is given to some other fan who is justified, ignored or placed in boxes in the rear.

The same conditions exist in the American League although not in such an aggravated form. A number of rich patrons, members of the Chicago Athletic Association, who had bought boxes of box seats for the Giant-Cubs games started the protest, which will end with Murphy getting a new force of attendants.

M'CARTY, JEANNETTE AND KENNEDY FIGHT.

(By Federal Wireline Line to The Times.) NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 19.—[Special Dispatch.] One of the heaviest bouts were a magnet, which packed Madison Square Garden from cellar to roof tonight and there was action enough to keep the fans in good temper all the while.

One white hope, "Tom" Kennedy, had a severe setback when he was sent to his corner in the seventh round of his bout with Jim Ravage, an in-and-out boxer from Orange, N. J. Luther McCarthy, famed as the conqueror of Carl Morris, added nothing to his reputation in the ten rounds with Jesse Willard, the Kansas City fighter, who was pointed in a mighty interesting tussle.

The final bout of the evening was a joke. It brought together Joe Jeannette, who is to box Jack Johnson in the near future and an unknown called Jeff Madden and said to half from Boston. Before the bout men around the ring predicted two rounds as its limit. The forecast was correct. Jeff was outclassed and was dropped four times before he was sent to his corner.

JOHNSON IS NOT ANXIOUS TO FIGHT.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES. CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Jack Johnson's forfeit will not be posted until Joe Jeannette's money is up in New York, he said tonight. Nor will Johnson do any training for the match until he is assured that the State Boxing Commission will permit the fight.

Johnson confided today that he was not anxious to fight Jeannette or any one else.

"I don't care particularly whether this fight comes off," he said. "I went into this affair just to please my wife. Training is hard work and I'd rather rest."

Johnson now weighs about 250 pounds, a little more than he weighed when he started to train for the Flynn fight.

FULLERTON'S REVIEW.

the job. Instead, within a few days after McGraw's threat, Bush was let out and Finerman sent to umpire for the Cubs. The result was another clash and Lynch suspended. Lynch making him ineligible for the start of the crucial New York-Chicago series in Chicago. Finerman repeated his charge that Zimmerman was yellow and afraid to play against New York.

When Myers and Doyle attacked an umpire Lynch said that they deserved suspension, but that he would not suspend them on the eve of a Chicago-New York series because it was too important. He suspended Doyle on the eve of a more important series.

In the latest trouble, Finerman shoved Doyle in the face and Doyle was arrested for retaliating, or starting a riot.

The facts thus stated ought to be sufficient to show that the National League still is "the New York League," and that, as President Young once said, "There is where the money comes from."

The public just discovered last week that the major league ball players have a union, and more different ideas of what the players are doing have been printed than there are newspapers. The fact is that the new organization started in June, as an immediate and direct result of the contention that Cobb and his insulting blather.

The two leagues held meetings, chose Dave Fultz, the old player, as their chief object. Demand for a hearing of the players' side of a case before he is punished.

Representation of the players on the national commission and a voice in the making of laws.

Insistence upon better protection of players on the field.

Garry Herrmann says there is no cause for discontent among players, but the fact is they are more discontented than ever.

The overbearing rulings of the commission and arbitrary punishment of players without a hearing has stirred them to earnest action. A few of the players think that the movement will result in a demand for higher wages, but the cooler and more sensible leaders declare no such object is considered.

They want protection against the law, and they want to be entitled to at least that.

The fact that they were called to the stand the day of the Cobb incident, could have heard both sides in a few moments, but departed, went to Boston and sent the sentence back. It wasn't the sentence itself, but the fact that they were refused a chance to present their side of the case at all that stirred up the players.

The chances for close finishes in the major leagues are much brighter. The teams are turning into the stretch now and the players look as if the pace is telling on both leagues. Besides both the Red Sox and the Giants have heavy going from now to the finish than either the Cubs or Athletics have, and the trailers have a fine chance to get up. If either the Cubs or Athletics ever get within real striking distance they will win, but the handicap is heavy, even with the gaps closed as much as they have been in the last two weeks.

WILLIE RITCHIE SIGNS FOR TOMMY MURPHY.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Willie Ritchie of this city, the challenger for the lightweight title, has been signed to box twenty rounds here on September 9, Admission Day, by Promoter James Coffroth. Ritchie's opponent probably will be "Harlem" Tommy Murphy, now in New York City, who expressed a willingness to meet any challenger Coffroth might select on the day named.

Coffroth wired to Murphy tonight and expects an early reply.

McGraw declines the match. Coffroth will sign either Jack (Que- Round) Hogan, or Frankie Burns in place of Ritchie. The fighters are to weigh 135 pounds ringside and the bout has been scheduled at 10 a. m.

GRAND CIRCUIT
AT SALEM N. H.

SALEM (N. H.), Aug. 19.—For the first time in the history of the Grand Circuit, a meet will be held in New Hampshire, beginning tomorrow at Rockingham Park, and lasting five days. The races will be held in connection with Rockingham Fair and the purses will aggregate $42,700.

The feature race for tomorrow will be "The Hub" for 2:05 pacers, for a purse of $3000, in which are entered Brannan Baughman, the largest money-winning pacer of 1911; Peter the Second, from Dundee, Mich.; Jim Logan, from California; Akar, from the stable of Ed Geers, and five other well-known horses.

On Wednesday "The Granite State" for 2:10 trotters, purse $5000, will be decided with the $1000 free-for-all trotting championship and the two-year-old trotting divisions of the $11,000 American Horse Breeders' stakes. Baden, winner of two $10,000 stakes in the Grand Circuit this season, is entered in the 2:10 trot against a strong field.

The free-for-all trot will bring together Billy Burke, Colorado E. Anvil, Gay Audubon and others.

Thursday will have the three-year-old trotting division of the American Horse Breeders' $11,000 stakes, the 2:12 pace for $2500 and 2:12 trot with famous horses for entries. On Friday and Saturday there are scheduled eight races for $1000 purses and a trotting free-for-all amateur drivers for $500.

Box Seat Swindle at Chicago Hall Park Ends in General Cleaning Up.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 19.—[Special Dispatch.] Numerous complaints by spectators at the New York-Chicago series of being defrauded by grafting ushers have decided President Murphy to make a clean sweep of the force now employed at the West Side Park. Just as soon as new men can be provided, the present ushers will be looking for other jobs.

The box seat patrons, the best paying spectators of the club were the victims. They bought box seats at $1 per seat and when they went to the park they discovered that the coupons were fraudulent and they wished to get a seat it was necessary to subsidize the crooked ushers.

The ushers have a habit of taking a tip from an ordinary grade stadium patron, and then handing out a box seat. When the patron who actually holds the box seat coupon appears, in a poor seat, several ushers at the box seat are ignored or placed in the rear.

The same conditions exist in the American League Park, although not in such an aggravated form. A number of rich patrons, members of the Chicago Athletic Association, who had bought blocks of box seats for the Grand-Cubs games started the protest, which will end with Murphy getting a new force of attendants.

M'CARTY, JEANNETTE AND KENNEDY FIGHT.

(By Federal Wireless Line to The Times.)

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 19.—[Special Dispatch.] Three heavyweight bouts were a magnet which packed Madison Square Garden from cellar to roof tonight and there was action enough to keep the fans good temper all the while. One white hope, "Tom" Kennedy, had a severe setback when he was sent to his corner in the seventh round of his bout with Jim Farnes, an in-and-out boxer from Orange, N. J. Luther McCarty, famed as the conqueror of Carl Morris, added nothing to his reputation in the ten rounds with James William, the Kansas cowboy, for he was out-pointed in a mighty interesting tussle. The final bout of the evening was a job, it brought together Joe Jeannette, who is to box Jack Johnson in the near future, and an unknown called Jeff Madden and said to hall from Boston. Before the bout men around the ringside predicted two rounds as its limit. The forecast was correct. Jeff was outclassed and was dropped four times before he was sent to his corner.

ON TICKET IN SPITE OF LAW.

BULL MOOSE MAN NOT A YEAR IN HIS DISTRICT.

Name Certified by Secretary of State and Court Holds No More Alternative but to Place on Ballot, May Be Withdrawn by Committee Later.

Another of the many fetters by which the Johnson-Lewis machine has bound the Republican party under the primary law, was exposed yesterday as an incident to the hearing of the mandamus proceedings before Judge Conroy in the Superior Court, through which it was sought to prevent the County Clerk from placing on the primary ballot, the name of J. Henry Baetz, a candidate for the Assembly in the Sixty-fifth Assembly District. Baetz has not lived in the district for the year required by law. There is no question as to this fact, as the County Clerk's chief counsel, Deputy District Attorney Hill, practically admitted it in court. Baetz registered from the County, Sixth Assembly District in January, and it was not until March 14 that he applied for a change of registration to the Sixty-fifth, from which he was in a few weeks, announced by Judge Conroy, to be removed from the ballot as a candidate for the Assembly. The law says that a candidate for the Assembly must have lived in the district for which he announces himself as a candidate, for at least a year.

FASHION POSTERS WORKS OF ART.

PREPARING EXHIBIT A SURPRISE AT BLANCHARD MALL.

Ninety Artists Enter Contest for Prize for Best Picture to Advertise Coming Fashion Show—Some Pictures that Are Better Than Posters.

Art for art's sake has much to do with the poster contest in the art gallery at Blanchard Mall.

Although the first prize offered by the Retail Dry Goods Merchants' Association of Los Angeles for the best poster to advertise their semi-annual fashion show, to be held September 10, 11 and 12, is only $100, with four other prizes ranging from $50 to $10, ninety artists have submitted 125 remarkably clever entries. These will be on exhibition today and tomorrow from 10 o'clock a.m. until 5 o'clock p.m. A private view for the members of the association, their wives and friends, for the press and for the exhibitors, was given last night. Everett Maxwell is in charge.

A poster show is joyously unconscious of itself because so many of the posters are not posters at all. A poster is supposed to be all line and color, with no attempt at perspective. It must be a dash of bold, strong coloring which compels the attention and which forever remains in the mind. The pictorial idea is not the least important part of the exhibit. It is not to do, but the discrepancy between what they are and what they are supposed to be is often charming.

Carl Yung has two exhibits, one of which would be wonderful for the decoration of a theater curtain or as a mural drawing, and the other would make a stunning magazine cover. Both works have about them the unmistakable atmosphere of genius, quite indescribable because of this very fact. Margaret Taylor has the painting from life of a beautiful Los Angeles woman, but it has about it a maturity and mystery of coloring which is probably unfit for the use of a fashion show, although in the fall of 1911 Editha Dray was the prize with a painting instead of a poster. Miss Dray has a clever offering at this time.

Three of the most fetching posters are by Blanche Letcher. She presents three women, striking in type, and of course, widely varied. The judges will find difficulty in passing the "Lady and the Peacock." Frank Derry, because the colors of the head of fashion are sumptuously reflected in the woman's hair, gown and shopping bag. W. H. Brown has three thorough posters. Two of them are stunning, and the other is a Scotch collie. James Frederick Ruddy, Martin Jackson, Henri de Kriest, Frederick Chaudron, Alice M. Bromley, Frederick Brisley, Marian Pike, C. Schriener, Gustave Recke and Marian Holden Pope are prominent among the better-known artists who are competing. The judges, F. W. Blanchard, G. A. Fuenet, J. Bond Blanchard, Leo J. Jolley and W. E. Chamberlain, expect to reach a decision on the posters tomorrow night. It is planned to have the printed posters 12x18 inches in size.

To show the evolution of the poster in serving the Los Angeles United Fashion Show, the originals of the last four winning posters have been hung among the exhibits for this year.
